We are in the Time of the Great Transformation

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are in the New Year. We are in the time of the Great Transformation. Time, it takes some time. We are equipped with the Great Knowledge and Great Tools of this Time.

Even in the early stages of this Great Period of Time, we are practicing the Blessed Techniques of Creating. Through this daily experience ability grows. Through our daily Practice of the Art of Creating, the Art of Ability, familiarity grows. It is like traveling on the same path between here and here. The journey takes some time. Some time is spent on this pathway. Familiarity is gained as one travels this pathway again and again. Finer details are perceived. One sees, the first time, only the pathway; concerned only that the direction is correct and that precautions are taken to arrive safely at the destination. But as one journeys the same path many times, one sees suddenly the brightly colored flowers set along the path and notices the beauty of the mountains in the distance on this very same path. One will be open to the new sites as if they are present for the first time. Yes. As one acquires greater familiarity, more and more of the finer aspects are revealed. In time, greater skill, greater ability unfolds, in time. We are speaking of the Art of Creating. Through thought one accomplishes. Great change comes through this familiarity of the pathway.

We are also speaking of the Personal Pathway, the technique of the Personal Pathway. This is the Brilliance of Awakening; this is the Brilliance of the Blessed Great Transformation.

Now Dear Ones, let us practice, for five minutes together now, our Blessed Technique of the Personal Pathway. As we sit at this Blessed time of the New Year, together we will practice this Blessed Gift of Great Knowledge. As we end the five minutes, we will together offer our Thanks to the Great Universal Beings of Light through whom we have Many Blessings, Many Blessings.

Now we will begin our technique of the Personal Pathway.

Your Role is the Executive of Eternal Light

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We welcome this New Year.

Cindy:

And at that point Lantos paused quite a long time. Then He continued:

Lantos:

This is the year of the Great Transformation. There is a very perfect order to this process of change. The process of Creation and Evolution comes about according to a perfect design. We may call this “a legal set of order”. It is the aspect of Intelligence through which this great process comes about, through which Creation Emerges and progresses.

We are in the most significant period of Time in History. It is the Time of Great Light: Eternal Light for all Creation. In this year, we will accomplish that Great Event which was foreseen by those with the vision to see. There is a Great Order to this Blessed Creation; the mechanics and laws governing the progression of all expression, all life, all evolution.

Dear Ones, as Masters of the Art of Creating, you are Mastering the Great Ability to operate according to these existing laws—this existing Great Universal Plan of Creation. We are—through your Blessed practices, your Blessed daily activities and service to the Sublime Light of Genesis—we are Fulfilling our role. We are upholding the course established by the Great Universal Architects.

Yes, Dear Ones, what Great Honor Blesses each one of you—our Beloved Masters of the Art of Creating, the Beloved Masters of the Brilliant Light of Genesis, the Precious few instruments of the Great Eternal Light—those by whom the Mighty Course of Light, the Great Wave of Transformation, is ushered into our Beloved Creation.

Dear Ones, to understand your role in Creation is to glimpse the highest seat in the mightiest Universal government. Your Role is the Executive of Eternal Light. It is by your hands, your actions, that the Great Wave has been generated. And, it is through your Blessed abilities as Masters of Eternal Light that this Course is achieved; the Great Transformation is accomplished for all Creation to enjoy.

Now, Dear Ones, let us enjoy our Beloved Technique of the Personal Pathway. We will sit now for five minutes and enjoy the Blessings of the Enlivenment of the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light.

Many Blessings.

Change Will Be Seen and Felt by All

Lantos:

We begin this Year of Great Change with a Great Silence. Yes, a Great Stillness announces the coming Great Wave of Change. In this Time of Silence, we enliven the individual link with the Source of Creation through the Blessed Technique of the Personal Pathway. It is an Enlivenment of the collection of the Beams of Eternal Light which form each Individual Expression of the Source of Creation. Yes, Enlivenment of the link of the individual expression and the Source of Creation. It is the Personal Pathway of Expression. We are locating the Source. We are tracing the Radiant Beams to their Source.

Good.

As you continue to gain greater familiarity with the process of Creating, through your techniques of the Art of Creating, you are increasing the power and effectiveness of every one of your thoughts. You are developing a familiarity with the process of the steps of Creating. It is a process; it is a Universal process. And, you will find that each thought, each thought you experience during the day, will command greater results. You are the Masters of this Great Change. It is through your Blessed thoughts and actions that you will move mountains. We are making the impossible, possible.

It is the Time. The Great Knowledge is here—Enlivened by our Blessed Radiant Masters of the Light of Genesis.

While we are speaking of the Enlivenment of Knowledge and the resurfacing of the Brilliant Light of Genesis, we should not forget that this change will come on all levels of Expression. We will see changes coming to the structure of societies around the world. We will experience the upheavals of the Earth. Change will be seen and felt by all. This is the Great Transformation.

First, Dear Ones, we wish to further strengthen the power of your thoughts. You are doing this through the use of the Great Master Tools: the Blessed Elixir of Life and the Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light. You are increasing the power of your thoughts and actions through your practice with the Blessed Tools of Genesis. You are gaining great familiarity with the most powerful level of Expression of Life through your practices of the techniques of the Art of Creating.

Through all of this, Dear Ones, you are preparing to be the Great Guides for the Emergence of Eternal Light in this New Era. We are strengthening the pillars in such a way that the entire structure, which is to be assembled, may rest securely on the steadiness of these few posts, pillars.

Dear Ones, you are the Great Pillars. This is the Time of Stillness.

Preparations are best made in the few moments of stillness before the activity of the battlefield. Just at the crest of the Wave there is a point of stillness before the water is gripped by the strength of the downward rushing flow of activity. In these Blessed moments of Stillness, we must use every opportunity to be well prepared. You have the Tools of Great Light, the Tools of the Light of Genesis.

Dear Ones, use these Tools on a map as you hear of events around the World. We are given the Blessed Pendant of Eternal Light as the Great Master Tool of this Great Transformation. You are using this Tool in your Techniques of Creating. And soon, you will be applying this Blessed Representation of the Process of Initial Rotations to assist in the balancing of world events. It will be good to spread this Beloved Tool of Eternal Light into the hands of many.

Dear Ones, enjoy this period of silence. Make use of the opportunity for rest and for advancement through your Knowledge and Tools of the Great Light of Genesis.

Many Blessings.

An Invitation to the Master Conference of Eternal Light

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Silence is within all. Silence is the indestructible Value found within every aspect of Creation. It is out of this silent reality of Creation that the entire dynamics of the Whole of Creation Emerges. Silence is the basis. Very good.

Structured within this Silence are the Beams of Intelligence, the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light. It is through the nature and dynamics of the Process of Initial Rotations that these Fundamental Beams of Intelligence give rise to every Aspect of Existence. This is the beginning of Creation. It is out of this beautiful process that we arrive at the mechanics of the Precious Tools of BioGenesis.

The Tools of BioGenesis are trained with the Genesis Energy, that indestructible order of the Fundamental Radiant Beams of Eternal Light, which are at the Source of All Creation.

Dear Ones, it is a very Great Blessing, a very Great Blessing, to be living in this time of the Great Transformation. This most Sublime Knowledge, this most Sublime Knowledge which has given rise to this Sublime Technology of Eternal Light, the Blessed Tools of Genesis—this, Dear Ones, is our great fortune, to be living in this Time when this Technology of Creating, the Art of Creating, has arisen and is available to all.

We are the fortunate ones, the ones with the great, good fortune to have seen the Value of that Knowledge which is beyond Value, that Knowledge which is beyond description, that which resides at the Source of All. We are the Blessed Ones.

Now, during this period of Silence, great things Emerge. Great Accomplishments come out of the Deepest Level of Stillness. The Wave, which Rises the Highest, Draws from the Deepest Level of the Ocean. This, Dear Ones, is that Drawing Point. We are Approaching the great Rise of the Immense Wave.

We wish to announce an Invitation to our Beloved Masters of the Blessed Light of Genesis, to our Beloved Masters of the Art of Creating, to our Beloved Masters of Eternal Light. Dear Ones, you are invited to join in the Master Conference of Eternal Light. In this Conference, the Beloved Universal and Celestial Beings assemble, as well as Great Luminaries for the Emergence of Knowledge and Light for all of Creation. During this Conference, you will receive the directives for enlivening the Full Value of the Ten Beams on Earth.

Every day is Precious, Dear Ones. For every day of this Great Year of Transformation, we must offer our attention in order to gain the full benefits of the Precious Knowledge and Tools we have in our possession. As this year progresses, great advancements will come along and the change will occur that will set our Precious world on its new level of life: Life in Fullness.

The Ten Radiant Beams will be our framework for this New Structure of Life: Life in Fullness, Life Illumined by the Brilliant Radiance of Eternal Light.

Many Blessings.

The Master Conference of Eternal Light

Cindy:

In a dialogue from Wednesday, January 25, 2012 Lantos mentioned The Master Conference of Eternal Light. So, this morning I asked him, “Can you tell us more about The Master Conference of Eternal Light; when will it be, where will it be, what kind of preparations we should be making?” And here’s his response:

Lantos:

Greetings,

Great accomplishments arise out of the Deepest Levels of Silence; out of the Deepest Values of Stillness, Great Action Emerges. A Great Silence has been generated. Years of work with the Blessed Tools of Genesis to enliven the Genesis Energy within each individual and for the whole of the environment, years of Enlivening the Light of Genesis on Earth, through the practices of our devoted Masters of the Light of Genesis, through the Blessings of the Great Universal Beings of Light, through the Supreme Blessings of the Source of Creation, a Deep Silence has been established. Out of this Silence, this Great Silence, the entire Wave of Transformation rises: Great Transformation out of Great Silence. At every point in Time, our Blessed Masters of the Light of Genesis offer the foundation and direction for this Great Cosmic event.

The Foundation is the Enlivenment of the Light of Genesis, Enlivenment of the Genesis Energy through the everyday use of the Blessed Tools of BioGenesis.

At the mid-point of this year, we will receive the Knowledge from the Great Celestial Assembly. We will offer this Knowledge to our Blessed Masters of the Light of Genesis in a Master Conference of Eternal Light. This Conference will be held during the first week of the mid-year, the first week of July, followed by three days of the Enlivenment of the Fullness of Eternal Light.

Cindy:

And then he paused for a long time, and then he continued:

Lantos:

Ten days, ten days of Eternal Light: during the first seven days we will offer one hour Knowledge sessions from The Master Conference of Eternal Light. On the following three days, we will receive a Course of the Beams of Eternal Light originating from the Blessed Seat of Eternal Light for all Masters of the Light of Genesis, all Masters of the Blessed Art of Creating, our Dear Masters of Eternal Light.

We extend an Invitation to our Blessed Masters: seven days of Knowledge from The Master Conference of Eternal Light followed by a three-day course to enliven the Structure of Fullness for the New Era of Eternal Light.

Now, sit to practice the Blessed Techniques of Creating as well as the Personal Pathway.

Many Blessings.

This is a Course Heralding the New Era

Lantos:

What do we mean when we say, “Transformation, Great Transformation?”

Transformation occurs on many levels of existence and in various degrees. Transformation occurs everywhere at all times. This is the very nature of existence. Existence by its nature is in motion.

Change: Creation is dynamic. By this we mean full of energy, full of change. Great minds study this change. Scientists study the nature and principles propelling this change—Change from one experience of life to another; Transformation from one state of existence to another.

What then do we mean when we say, “Great Transformation?” What can we mean by this statement when we see before us the entire Cosmic structure in motion? We see the whole of the Cosmos experiencing the constant process of change. Transformation is everywhere. Even the great Galaxies are in motion. Every aspect of Creation is propelled by this force of life: energy, change, Transformation.

How then do we say the words, “Great Transformation” when all of Creation is immersed in the cosmic arena of change? Yes. This is a very beautiful question; it is a very beautiful question. Great Transformation—the key lies in the description: Great, Great.

What kind of Transformation is it? It is Great—The Great Transformation. Great implies size as well as stature—position in Creation. When we say Transformation is everywhere, we refer to the many movements, the continuum of energy and movements.

Now, when we say Great Transformation, this is referring to that singular process located at the Source of Creation, the process responsible for the Emergence of all life. This process may be described as the dynamics of the Process of Initial Rotations. It may be described as the process of the Emergence of Creation through the Impulse of Intent by the Almighty Source of Creation. These two Processes are identical. Do you see? One and the same.

The Process of Initial Rotations is the very process through which Creation Emerges from its Almighty Radiant Luminous Source. This is the process which we call Great. Here is our answer, Dear Ones, this process—this Process of the Art of Creating, the process by which Creation Emerges—this is the level of Transformation which is arriving on every level of life. It was always present within the structure of life. But now, this Supreme Energy, which is the Source of All, is to be the Force governing life, arriving on the surface of life.

The clouds will no longer shadow the Presence of the Sun. The Brilliant Sun shines. The clouds consist only of vapor. You may brush away a cloud with the stroke of the hand; but yet, this hazy substance has hidden the Brilliant Radiance of the Sun.

Great Transformation is very simple indeed. It is like brushing away the clouds with the Wave of the hand. But this simple process has remained hidden. The Brilliance of the ever-present Sun has remained hidden. When one has lived under the thick veil of clouds, the first opening breaks bring blinding Streams of Light. There is great confusion and disruption in society as the eyes are not adjusted to this level of Brilliance. If one looks at this event from a distance, one may wonder, 'Is that a great fire? Is it a mighty bolt of lightning striking the Earth?' It is a cause of fear and great concern.

From a distance this Great Light was seen, but the Source was misunderstood. The true nature of the Radiance of the Sun has not been glimpsed except by a few Great Seers over the Ages, Great Masters of the Light.

Now, Dear Ones, now we have before us this breaking of the thick layer of clouds; the Beams of the True Value of the Radiant Source are breaking through. These early beams carry great impact. The Full Value of Brilliance travels on these specific Beams of Light. It is with blinding brilliance that these early beams arrive on Earth.

The Knowledge of the Sun may be found within these early beams. To herald the start of this New Era, we will identify and experience these Beams of Eternal Light. This is a Course heralding the New Era, a Course for the Beams of Eternal Light. Yes, Dear Ones, this is the nature of the Great Transformation.

First, we will receive the Seven Days of Knowledge from the Great Celestial Assembly in the Blessed Master Conference of Eternal Light. This is a Time of Great Knowledge and Advancement. We are waving the Cosmic hand to dissipate the clouds. Then, on the following three days we will welcome the breaking Light of the Beams of Eternal Light originating from our Blessed Seat of Eternal Light.

Yes, Dear Ones, let us practice now our technique of the Personal Pathway. Every day we practice our Blessed techniques of the Art of Creating.

Very Good. Many Blessings.

The Great Seal of Genesis The BioGenesis Course of Love

Cindy:

Lantos appeared and I asked him a question; if he could please clarify for us who will be invited to participate with the Master Conference of Eternal Light which is coming up in this year. He had already mentioned that people who have attended the Chair Program, people who have taken the Creating Course, and I just was asking if there was any other, anyone else that could be participating as well.

He said,

Lantos:

Very good. It is very good.

Dear Ones,

To the Master Conference of Eternal Light we welcome all trained in the Knowledge of the Light of Genesis; those Blessed Ones spreading the Light of Genesis through the training of the Great Teacher, the Blessed Pyramid of Genesis. Any individual with a Pyramid of Genesis in the household, we welcome to the Master Conference of Eternal Light. During the conference sessions, it will be good to have the Blessed Pyramid of Genesis present in the room with each participant. It will also be good to have present, for each individual participant, the Master Tools of Eternal Light: The Blessed Pendant of Eternal Light and the Blessed Waters of Life, the Waters of Eternal Light. Through these Master Tools maximum benefits will be received by all.

Now, the period of rest is complete. It is time for action. There is much to accomplish.

Cindy:

And then he paused and I asked him if—one thing more about the three-day course that's following—is it that we would invite the same people; for instance, anyone with a Pyramid of Genesis, or is there any other indication of who we should be inviting for that class. And, he said, after he had paused for a while, he said,

Lantos:

It will be necessary to have the experience of the Art of Creating. For this Blessed program, Enlivening the Beams of Eternal Light, it is required to have that Fundamental Experience of the Dynamics of the Source of Creation. We will Enliven the Beams of Eternal Light.

The period of Stillness has given rise to a tremendous Wave. The Time of Rest has been fulfilled. Rest precedes the initiation of Action.

Now, we will observe the mighty channels of Light and Energy which have been opened during this Silence. It is time for the development of the Great Seal of Genesis. Yes, out of the deep Silence, generated by the Blessed practices of our Dear Masters of the Art of Creating, the Diamond has Emerged, the Precious result of the Blessed works and efforts. Great results come of great deeds. Your efforts with Spreading the Light of Genesis, through the use of the Tools of Genesis, have brought forth this Precious gem.

For many years the Great Seal has tried to Emerge. But only now, with the Enlivened Value of the Source of Creation, can this Precious Energy be structured in Form. Only now can this ever-present Value of Relationship take Form. Relationship: this is the nature of the Great Seal of Genesis, Relationship of Eternal Light.

Relationship: relationship on Earth begins with the first breath and is expressed as the tender and complete bond between the Mother and child. Relationship continues to expand through life. Relationship is the underlying current which carries life, moves life along its course; like the river carrying along its course, the raft. The river is the arm of the mighty ocean. One doesn't see the ocean but only one flows in its direction, effortlessly, along the current.

This is the current of life. This, Dear Ones, is Love. Love is that word used to describe the Value of Relationship: relationship of the child with the mother, relationship of the ocean with the boat. Even at a great distance, the arm stretches out to gently carry the boat back to the ocean. Love, this is Love. Love is the unseen current of life.

When one meets someone with whom one finds a strong connection, there is a great Wave of Joy, a Wave of Love. It is through this experience, this experience of Relationship, that the Ocean of Eternal Light is glimpsed in Creation.

Dear Ones, the Great Seal of Genesis is the Tool of Relationship. It comes to us in this Year of the Great Transformation. Out of the Stillness, the depths of Silence generated by our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating; out of this Stillness, the Gem of Life has Emerged. In this year of the Great Transformation, the Great Seal of Genesis Emerges. It is beautiful, very beautiful.

Transformation is the Experience of the Relationship between one Value and the next. It is through relationship—the Value of Relationship, that the Dynamics of Transformation occur. It is very beautiful. Yes. You see?

Out of great Silence comes great Action. Love is the Gem of Life. Relationship is the underlying Current of Life. It is the Current of Existence.

Our three-day course, the course to Enliven the Beams of Eternal Light; this is the Course of Love, The BioGenesis Course of Love. Yes, BioGenesis Course of Love, to enliven the Value of Relationship of Eternal Light, the Beams of Eternal Light. Very Good.

Beautiful.

We will have now the Great Seal of Genesis. Observe the Great Seal of Genesis.

Many Blessings, Dear Ones.

Life is a Very Dear Privilege

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Eternal Light is that level of Creation which is Indestructible, that level of Creation which is Eternal. Even with all Transformation, all change, everywhere change, through all changing aspects of existence—the Nature of Eternal Light remains. The status of Eternal Light is not jeopardized; this is the status of Eternity. Our Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light enlivens this highest level out of which all aspects of Creation take Form. Our Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light enlivens the Basis of all Transformation. Eternal Light is the Basis of all Transformation. It is beautiful. Transformation is the Extension of Eternity, that Eternal Reality which cannot be negated. Yes.

Dear ones, this is a very important point. Our Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light enlivens Eternity. Eternity knows no momentary quality, no aspect of change and yet, and yet, this Beloved Serene Reality is the Cause of all Transformation, all Change, all Behavior in the World.

Through this Process of Transformation the Eternal Nature of Eternal Light shines Brilliantly. We take recourse to the Eternity of Eternal Light. This, Dear Ones, is the Time of Ascending to Eternal Light. Every action, even every thought should have this Goal as its purpose.

We are establishing Eternal Light at this Time of the Great Transformation. We are finding the Highest Value of Eternity at the Time of the Greatest Level of Change. This is the Great Balance of the Universe. The one experience cannot exist without the other. Great Change cannot exist without the Great Brilliance of Eternity, Eternal Light.

Through your Blessed daily activities of the Art of Creating, you are enlivening Eternal Light. In the simple act of wearing the Blessed Pendant of Eternal Light, the brilliant Source of Transformation, the Blessed Process of Initial Rotations gets Enlivened—Together Eternity and Transformation.

In this year of the Great Transformation, we Receive the Great Blessing of the Master Conference of Eternal Light—the Knowledge of the Great Cosmic Beings and Hosts of Light. We receive our timely and Blessed Seal of Genesis, our Great Seal of Genesis. There is much work to be accomplished. Daily practice of the Art of Creating, daily few minutes devoted to the Personal Pathway, daily Shield Treatment—these are our Blessed Tools of these Great Times.

It is a very great privilege to have this Knowledge. Life is a very Dear Privilege. Knowledge does Justice to Life. It is a Thanksgiving to our Blessed Creator to Value the Knowledge given. Practice the Techniques and Tools of the Blessed Light of Genesis.

Many Blessings.

Freedom is that State Which is Without Boundaries

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Freedom is that State which is without boundaries; when there are no parts, there is only Whole. That which is without parts is Whole. This is the State of Freedom. Wholeness is the State of Freedom. There can be no doubt. Freedom can only be gained in a condition which is without boundaries. If boundaries exist, freedom is lost. If boundaries prevail, freedom is clouded. The Sun still shines, but the experience of the Radiant Value of the Sun is lost when the clouds prevail.

There is great significance to the association of Freedom with the Blessed Land of America. America stands for Freedom. Freedom is the Blessed State of Wholeness—Radiant in the Brilliance of Eternal Light. America is the Great Land of Freedom. America is the Blessed Land of Eternal Light. America is the Host of the Seat of Eternal Light, that Level of Creation which is without boundaries, that Level of Creation which is Eternal. From this Highest Level of Existence all Creation Emerges.

The Seat of Eternal Light is the Seat of the Highest Value of Knowledge. From the Seat of Eternal Light, the Precious Knowledge of the Art of Creating has Emerged. From the Seat of Eternal Light the Beloved Master Tools, the Pendant of Eternal Light and the Blessed Elixir of Life, have Emerged.

Now, Dear Ones, now we welcome the Emergence of the Great Seal of Genesis. The Great Seal of Genesis is the Precious Gem of Eternal Light—The Tool of Relationship. Relationship of the Source of Creation with the individual, Relationship of the parents with the children, Relationship of the husband with the wife, Relationship of one aspect of existence with another, Relationship of one Cosmic Region with another.

It is through the Current of Relationship that the Dynamic Process of Transformation is accomplished. And, what comes out of this Process of Relationship and Transformation? The Great Transformation Emerges out of this Process of Relationship and Transformation and the Great Transformation brings about the State of Freedom.

Freedom is gained by achieving the highest Value of Relationship; the highest level of Relationship is the one, the one without the boundaries. Out of the diversity, out of the Great Transformation, Emerges Freedom. Freedom is the One—Eternity. Freedom is gained in Eternal Light. Yes, the Blessed Tool of Relationship Emerges at this significant Time; it is so planned by the Great Universal Architect.

Such perfection may only Emerge out of a Limitless Intelligence, out of the Eternal State of Infinite Knowledge owned by that Great Being in whom awareness of all events is awake at all times. This, Dear Ones, we refer to as the Great Universal Architect. This Great Being may go by many names—the Blessed Almighty Source of Creation, the Great Almighty Lord of Creation.

We are very fortunate.

Now we will practice our Blessed Technique of the Personal Pathway with this Blessed Source of All Creation.

Many Blessings.

The Re-Emergence of the Knowledge

Lantos:

Our Blessed Tools of Genesis—it is a beautiful body of Knowledge, the Re-Emergence of the Knowledge of Enlivening the Light of Genesis. This Knowledge was in Existence before. We do not say that this is new Knowledge. We give thanks to the Great Beings of Light for the Re-Emergence of this Precious Knowledge. Knowledge Emerges in a manner which will be most readily received according to the specific qualities of the Time.

We are Blessed in this age by great means of technology and communication, advanced technology, rapid communication; all of these aspects of this age come together to make possible the Great Transformation. When one stops to think, it is inconceivable the vast array of components necessary to bring about this Great Shift; but this happens automatically. This is the Great Perfection found at the Basis of All Existence, Supreme Perfection. It is this lively Spark of Perfection found in All of Existence which does the trick.

When we use the Blessed Flame of Genesis, we enliven the Genesis Energy in a particular way. When we use the BioAmplifier, we enliven the Genesis Energy in a different way. But in every case, we are Enlivening that Blessed Genesis Energy found to be available and present everywhere in all of Creation. This is the Supreme Perfection of the Almighty Source of Creation. One with the Highest Level of Vision may see this Perfection, this Supreme Perfection in All. Then one says, “Ah yes, this is it, now I see”.

Dear Ones, this is the Great Transformation, when one’s vision can see that Spark of the Supreme State of Perfection. This is true vision, this is correct vision—vision without the hazy clouds. Now, the hazy clouds are clearing for all of society. This is a Great Transformation.

Practice again and again. Practice with the Blessed Tools of Genesis. This clears the haze from every different angle. Practice with the Beloved Master Tools of Genesis; training and practice with the Great Knowledge of the Art of Creating, the Blessed gift of the Holy Season—Our Technique of the Personal Pathway—and Dear Ones, the experience of the Blessed Chair of Genesis.

Yes, we have many Blessed Tools in our hands. Now we will soon experience the Radiant Awakening of Relationship with our Beloved Great Seal of Genesis. This is the proper time, this is the Time when the Impossible becomes Possible.

Very good, very good. Continue your beautiful practices. Many Blessings.

We Are Clearing Away the Clouds

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are Enlivening the Process of Initial Rotations; everywhere this process is being Enlivened. As we drink the Blessed Elixir Holy Waters, we are enlivening the Process of Initial Rotations within every cell in the body. Each cell is Awakened to the Light of Genesis through the Enlivenment of the Process of the Source of Creation. We are Enlivening the Memory of the proper Sequence Code, the Clear Reflections of the Source of Creation unclouded.

We are clearing away the clouds. The clouds come; the Brilliance of the Sun is blocked. We are clearing the clouds to reveal the Brilliance; the Full Radiance of the Light of Genesis within the body, within the environment.

For this world, and for many worlds, this influence of Enlivenment spreads. Every stroke is significant. Each stroke dissipates the clouds—a stroke with the Wand, a stroke with the Amplifier, a call with the Translator, the Enlivenment of the Connection with the Source of Creation through the Personal Pathway. With every Technique of the Art of Creating we are Enlivening the Process of the Source of Creation. And with such beautiful strokes we are clearing away the clouds, the clouds which block the Full Radiance of our Blessed Light of Genesis, the Eternal Light of Creation. Yes, from every angle we are working.

Dear Ones, do not forget the Simple Process of the Personal Pathway and the Blessed Techniques of Creating. With these techniques Great Sweeping Strokes are generated and the effects are bringing about Cosmic Change. From Enlivenment deep within the cells to Enlivenment at the far reaches of the Cosmic Regions, we are experiencing the Stages of the Great Transformation.

Yes. It is Beautiful. Well done.

Very Good. Very Beautiful. Many Blessings.

The Great Seal of Genesis and the Pocket Seal

Cindy:

Lantos appeared and I showed him some photographs of the prototypes of the Great Seal and also the Pocket Seal, and this is his response:

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Eureka! Now we have it—it is very Beautiful, very, very Beautiful—our Blessed Great Seal. A Great Blessing has arrived. We receive this Great Blessing, which comes to us during the time of the Great Transformation.

And with our Blessed Great Seal comes the Enlivenment of the Pure Value of Relationship—that which connects. We are speaking now of the qualities of this Blessed Great Seal of Genesis. Relationship is the path which leads to the Source. From every direction there is only one Goal. This Goal is the Source of All Creation, that Source from which all existence springs.

The path for some will include a companion soul, one whose footsteps will be in harmony and in pace with one's own. Together the path will be traveled. The instances and events of living will be experienced together. In this way the Life will be Blessed by the company and support of another.

Our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis brings to us the Blessings of the Pure Value of Relationship. Those elements which are not supportive will be dismissed and replaced by that which shines with the Radiance of Eternal Light. We will experience great upliftment with the physical Presence of our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis.

Our Beloved Pocket Seal is to be a Receiver of the Impulses of Light generated by our Blessed Great Seal. It, too, connects the individual with the Blessed Stream of Love which permeates every Realm of Creation and carries all in the direction of our Blessed Almighty Source, the Brilliant Radiance of Eternal Light. Our Blessed Pocket Seal will be that Tool to attract the elements and forces which support progress. It will be the one to draw to the individual those with whom there exists a deep connection—the Pure Value of Relationship, that Gem of All Life, the Value of Love.

Yes, it is time for the Emergence of our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis and our Blessed Pocket Seal.

Very good. Very good. Many Blessings.

Act When it is Time to Act

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Today we will examine the Precious Rays of Light generated through the Process of Initial Rotations. In this process, the process located everywhere in Creation and found to be at the Basis of All of Creation; these most Fundamental Rays, the Rays of Eternal Light, are found to be emerging out of this Process of Creating.

Dear Ones, the direction and influence of each of these Rays will be described in great detail in our Master's Conference. We will see the practical applications of each of these Blessed Mighty Rays, the Beams of Eternal Light. As the condition of the physical structure of each of our Beloved Masters of Creating is raised, these Beams of Eternal Light Emerge on the Level of Direct Experience.

The Vision is raised to evaluate the Source Value—that level of Initial Rotations within any object. Dear Ones, the physical structure must be raised to that Degree of Attunement with this Blessed Process of Initial Rotations. On the physical level this is accomplished through the Blessed Effects of the Holy Waters of Life.

Now, yes, we are—through this Master Tool—we are re-establishing the Proper Sequence Code on the Cellular Level. Now, yes, now Dear Ones, we wish to accelerate this Process. The Restoration of Memory must be accelerated in these coming days. Some degree of the Holy Information is lost in the Process of Initialization owing to the origins of the waters. For maximum benefit, these Precious Waters of Life must originate from the Blessed Holy Site, our Precious Seat of Eternal Light. Wherein even the Highest Orders of Universal Beings enjoy the refined atmosphere of the Enlivened State of Eternal Light, the State generated by the Presence of that Highest Level of Creation, the Brilliant Radiance of the Almighty Source of Creation. Yes, yes, it is the wish of the Blessed Great Almighty Universal Brilliance that these Waters of Life originate within this Seat of Eternal Light, our Beloved Seat of Eternal Light. We will see to this in the coming days. In this way we continue to make every preparation for the Value of the Infinite to be lived. We are Making All Things Possible.

In these coming months we look forward to the arrival of our Blessed Great Seal, the Tool of Relationship. We look forward to the arrival of the Great Knowledge of the Master's Conference and the Blessed Course of Love. We practice daily our Blessed Techniques of the Art of Creating. We give and receive Treatments with our Precious Tools of Genesis. We place our desires with our Translators and Amplifiers. We protect with our Blessed Shield. It is a complete Body of Knowledge which has Blessed our Time.

This is the Time to Act—we do not put off the practices for another day, we do it Today. No time has been so directed to the Supreme Level of Attainment as This Time. At this time we have that beautiful ability to achieve the Supreme State of Life, the Supreme State of Fullness. Fullness means Living the Infinite Value, that is what we mean by Fullness.

Dear Ones, through your devoted practices you are gaining this Supreme Level of Life, you are achieving Fullness, you are Mastering Eternal Light. Very Good.

Now Act when it is Time to Act and Rest when it is Time to Rest. Do this to achieve more.

Many Blessings. Many Blessings.

Relationship Brings About Support

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We await the arrival of the Great Seal of Genesis. It is a Great Tool of Light. We will Enliven the Field of all Relationship. Relationship brings about Support, Yes, Support.

When one is in close relations with another, one offers support. Support Emerges automatically out of the Enlivenment of Relationship. The parent supports the child, the close friend supports the friend, the husband supports the wife. Yes, the closer the relationship, the more profound the relationship, the greater the support offered. In this way we see that enlivenment of the Blessed Value of Relationship brings about a stream, a Current of Support—personal support, upliftment, increased prosperity, increased assistance in every aspect of life.

Finding the correct path, the correct direction in life; this comes through this Value of Support—the proper career, the most fruitful investments, the deepest personal connections.

Dear Ones, this Emerges out of the Enlivenment of Relationship brought about by our Blessed new Tools of Genesis—our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis, our Blessed Pocket Seal of Genesis. These Tools bring to us a timely world of assistance, support in life, proper timing. This is needed at this critical period of Transformation, Great Transformation. Yes, it is a Great Blessing, a Very Great Blessing we are receiving with the Emergence of our Blessed Seal.

Very soon we will have these Blessed Tools. They are in the hands of our Master Builder. We will receive these Tools in a timely manner. Yes, it is in the perfect timing. We have received great support already. Yes, Dear Ones, much may be accomplished with the arrival of these new Tools.

Now is the time to continue our Practices in the Techniques of the Art of Creating; the Art of Creating and the Art of Ability. It is through these Blessed Techniques of Eternal Light that we gain ability to master the Blessings of this Era of Eternal Light. Yes, it is Great Knowledge. We are Blessed with the timing of this Great Knowledge. Very good. We will end now with the Technique of the Personal Pathway.

Many Blessings.

The Path is Clear

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We have heard about a Treasure Chest. We have heard the reports of a beautiful Treasure available to All—All who follow the Instructions of the Path. The Path has been Charted, the Map has been Drawn. We are the fortunate ones. Great Pathfinders have come before us to offer their experience; to offer their Knowledge of the best route, the shortest route, the most secure route. These are the Great Blessings left to us by the Ones with Vision. Those Great Ones who traveled this Path, the Ones with Vision who found the Way, the Ones who located the best route and the Ones who identified those Tools which are most useful along the way.

We are headed straight for the Goal; we have received beautiful instruction as to the Tools which will offer the greatest assistance in reaching our Glorious Destination. With these Tools and with this Highest Guidance, we feel a great sense of confidence. We experience a great confidence that we too may now achieve that beautiful prized treasure which was found in the past and is available today. It gives us a great confidence, a security. We are so fortunate.

At times even the path may be obstructed, at times the river may overflow its banks and the walkway obstructed, at times the wild herds may be passing along and we may have to wait awhile. We may have to pause and wait for the passing procession.

At this time, Dear Ones, we have an Open Path, we have a Clear Path. The pathway to the desired treasure is open to all. We are living in this Blessed Time. We are Blessed by the clear pathway. We are Blessed by the Supreme Knowledge of the Pathway. This is the Knowledge of the most direct route, the safest journey.

And this treasure? Now we speak of this prized treasure. What is this treasure that we seek? What is this beautiful Goal which has been sought after by all Great Ones in all times past? This is the Goal of Eternal Light. It is a life of Infinity. It is a life of Supreme Attainment, brought about by the Blessed Knowledge of the Path, brought about by a Time when the path is clear. This is the Supreme Treasure of Life and it is available now; such great fortune, such beautiful fortune. We have the Tools, the Tools to take us along the path, the Tools to attain the Supreme Goal. Very good.

Our Blessed Seal will arrive to assist us along the path. We receive important assistance from each Tool, each Technique. These are the Tools of the Light of Genesis, the Techniques of Eternal Light, the Tools and Techniques to attain the Goal of our Supreme Quest. Beautiful, it is beautiful.

Now enjoy even the path, enjoy the Blessings of the path.

Many Blessings.

BioGenesis is For All

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Now we have arrived at a point of Great Interest. It is the point of the responsibility of our Blessed Masters—Masters of the Light, Masters of the Blessed Light of Genesis, Masters of the Supreme Art of Creating, our Beloved Masters of Eternal Light. Now is the time to spread this Great Light to All. When you offer a BioGenesis Treatment to an individual you are Enlivening the Light of Genesis within that individual as well as within yourself and for the whole of the environment. It is a beautiful process.

Now we wish to spread the Light of Genesis. For this reason we are offering this Highest Knowledge, the Knowledge of the Process of the Art of Creating to the world. This Knowledge is for the World; spreading from the Source, the Seat of Eternal Light for All Mankind. This Knowledge goes out to the world. We are spreading the Light of Genesis; we are enlivening the Field of Eternal Light for all.

As we listen to these Blessed instructions, the instructions coming to us from the Beloved Great Beings of Light, we Experience Profound Transformation. Knowledge is for Transformation. We have said this many times, many times. We will say this: Knowledge is for Transformation. Great Knowledge is for Great Transformation. Yes, this is a very profound understanding of the Structure of Creation.

Dear Ones, in the same way we offer the Blessed BioGenesis Treatments to others, let us spread the influence of the Light of Genesis to all through the use of the Blessed Tools of Genesis on the map. Each day, even a few minutes will enliven that Great Brilliance, that Sublime Brilliance, the Brilliance of the Source of Creation. Yes, a few minutes spent enlivening the map will have great effects.

Let us encourage all to take up this Great Knowledge, take up the Knowledge of the Art of Creating through these Blessed courses going out to every part of the world. We are very Blessed to live in this time of this great technology which brings the Blessed Knowledge of Eternal Light from the Seat of Eternal Light and makes it simultaneously available to the entire world at once. In one stroke the Knowledge is broadcast and made available for the Blessings of all. It is very beautiful, so beautiful. It is the Expression of the Time—even this could not have been imagined in the days of the grandparents—such great changes. Like this, the enlivenment of the Process of Initial Rotations is bringing about the Great Change, Great Transformation, and for this we ask for your assistance. Generate this change through the Global Enlivenment of Eternal Light.

Let us have the course received by individuals from every part of the world. In this way the influence is spread. Great Knowledge is for Great Transformation. Yes, enliven the Light of Genesis onto the map and, thereby create the influence of enlivenment in every country. BioGenesis is for All.

Very Good, yes it is very good. Many Blessings.

The Course of Love and the Pocket Seal of Genesis

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

The Course of Love—yes, it is very Precious, Enlivening those Beams of Eternal Light which form the connections between all aspects of Creation. Yes, these are the Sublime Beams of Eternal Light, the Channels through which Life Emerges. It is through these Channels, these Pathways of Light, that life finds relationship with all existence, all Creation. Relationship: the Channels of Eternal Light, the Strands or Beams of Eternal Light, the Currents of Eternal Light. We may use many expressions to describe this Great Reality. It is this reality of the existence of the finest quality of Love which unifies All of Creation. Through Love one relates with all of Creation—Relationship.

In our Beloved BioGenesis Course of Love, these Channels of Light and Energy—the Beams of Eternal Light—will be opened to our understanding and experience. We will apply the dynamics generated by our Pocket Seal of Genesis to enable our experience of these Beams of Eternal Light more completely and more directly. It is the Precious Gem Enlivening the Mighty Channels of Relationship.

There is no force greater than that of Love. It comes as a great surprise that the most delicate aspect of Creation is also the most Mighty. The Force of Love is insurmountable, it is invincible. It cannot be vanquished by reason or by force. It is more mighty than the forces of time and distance. The Force of Love is the clearest Representation of the Totality of the Almighty Source of Creation—it permeates All, it Supports All of Existence.

Like the current of the river, love carries life along the proper path. While the river may bend this way and that way, the direction is set, the Goal is set—the river is destined to reach the ocean. For all travelers, all seekers in all times, the river is the guide. The Blessed Beams of Eternal Light are the Guides for Creation, the Guiding Channels of Existence. These Beams of Eternal Light are Enlivened for the Blessing of all of Creation as we move into this New Era of Existence. Very good.

The timing is a perfect expression of the Limitless Knowledge of our Blessed Great Universal Architect. Very good. It is Great Knowledge. Very good.

Now all should enjoy five minutes of the Enlivenment of the Blessed Personal Pathway of Life.

Many Blessings.

Kindness Is Essential

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are working together. Always we should remember this very basic point of instruction—we work together. Together we generate the atmosphere for this great change—together. It is a beautiful point. Kindness is Essential. The manner in which we govern our speech is essential to the rapid pace of progress. Discord slows the entire process. Discord puts a wrinkle in the Heart and the Heart is the engine of Life. Kindness is the super fuel which accelerates one's own pace and boosts the quality of the environment.

As we make great changes in the world, we must take extra measures to insure that the elements we are contributing at this particular time are most beneficial to positivity and harmony. We are promoting the most powerful, yet most delicate, level of life. For this, we must generate a proper environment—an environment supportive of this Pure Light. We generate an influence of happiness, peacefulness, cooperation. We establish a good habit of behavior.

Why is this so important at this time? Ah, yes, beautiful. Now we see the connection with the Knowledge of our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating.

There is great importance in the angle of entry. As the rocket ship re-enters the atmosphere, the angle is of great significance. Any error in the angle, any slight deviation, and the whole thing may become a disaster. The whole thing may be thrown off if there is any error at that critical point of entry.

We are at the Critical Point of Entry of a New Atmosphere. As we leave one atmosphere and enter a new one, the angle of approach is of great significance. What we generate now, and for the course of this critical time of change, will determine the results—the entire structure of the new atmosphere. The entire quality of the New Era is greatly affected by the angle of entry. The point where the diver leaves the board, this is the critical point and will set the course for the comfortable entry into the water. The angle determines the entry, whether there is a smooth entry or a giant splash. These factors are determined by those moments before the entry.

As Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating, your thoughts and feelings have great impact on the world. You have received training in the Techniques of Creating, the Techniques which are performed on the level of the Source of Creation. The influence of your thoughts and speech travel far and possess great strength and energy. The direction and quality of your feelings carries great impact. Just as we perform our work with the Blessed Tools of Genesis, we must realize that we, ourselves, are Great Tools of the Light of Genesis. Our feelings and thoughts have great influence.

Let harmony be at the basis of speech. In this way, speech becomes a Great Tool of the Light. We are all assisting in the Emergence of this Great Light—Eternal Light. We apply all our Knowledge to this Blessed task—this great responsibility which we have accepted.

Our Blessed Wand of Genesis smooths the sharpness of speech. If one finds sharpness or anger emerging, one may sit comfortably for a few minutes with the Blessed Wand. The Wand settles the fluctuations of the Heart and this will calm the flames of temper. Good.

Now we will practice our Blessed Technique of the Personal Pathway.

Very Good. Many Blessings.

The Wand is a Mighty Tool of Transformation

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are Blessed to enter this time of the Great Transformation. It is a Great Shift, a shift in the quality of existence for all. Actions performed during this critical time of entry will have far-reaching effects. Actions performed at this time will render Waves of Great Magnitude spreading across Creation. These Waves of Influence travel across Time and Distance.

We are generating Great Waves of Purity with our Blessed Holy Water. Water is the Blessed Carrier of Life. Encoded into our Great Master Tool of Life is the Sequence Code of Purity. It is the Initial Sequence Code of Life. This Holy Water carries the Initial Patterns of Life, emerging from the Source of Creation. Fullness of Life is encoded into this Holy Water. The Individual Pattern, the Individual Sequence Code for the Fullness of Life, is encoded into our Blessed Holy Waters. It is very Beautiful. In this way we are creating Great Waves of Influence.

To enliven these Initial Patterns of Life sends Great Waves of Purity into Creation. All of Creation rejoices as these Initial Designs get re-Awakened. We are Awakening the Initial Designs through the Enlivenment of the memory of the Sublime Process of Initial Rotations, as this process Emerges into Existence. These are the Initial Impulses of Individual Existence. The Holy Waters are Encoded through the Enlivenment of Initial Rotations with the Initial Impulses Arising from the Source of Creation. It is very Beautiful.

Our Blessed work with our Master Tools of Light is Enlivening Creation. This is a Critical Time—Entry into the Great Transformation. It is highly sensitive. The actions of today have far-reaching impact, far-reaching. We continue our work as the Masters of Creating, the Beloved Masters of the Light of Genesis.

Dear Ones, soon we will have our Blessed Tool to enliven the Infinite Value of Relationship, our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis. Yes, good.

Now—the Wand is a Mighty Tool of Transformation. With this Tool we will smooth the rough areas; we will bridge the gaps, connecting the gaps. Yes, in a Time of Transformation it is necessary to progress smoothly. Very good. It is very good.

Place daily a desire under the Translator and the Amplifier. We will maximize the results by acting during this time. We will send Great Waves throughout Creation. This, Dear Ones, is Your Occupation. You are Masters of the Great Light of Genesis. It is to you that responsibility rests for charting the course for all. You are setting the direction for time to follow. Such a responsibility is a Great Blessing. Yes, it is a Great Blessing. Beautiful. Many Blessings.

Let us offer our next few minutes to Enlivening the Personal Pathway with the Source of Creation.

Good, Blessings.

Light is a Mighty Magnet

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

As the clouds break and the Radiant Beams streak through Illuminating patches on the surface, all attention will be drawn to those areas of Intense Brilliance. It is such a contrast, such a contrast. There has been darkness everywhere. Even as the clouds have thinned, still the Light is very diffuse and subtle. From the complete darkness of night to the subtle appearance of a softly Glowing Light, as the clouds begin to diffuse, this already Dear Ones, is a great accomplishment—from darkness to a thin Glow of Light—from darkness so complete that it was not possible to find the Path. At that time one placed with great faith one foot in front of the other, never knowing what lay ahead. It required great faith to attempt to find the path in the darkness of night.

But now, Dear Ones, there is a soft Glow of Light which has spread throughout Creation. It is the Blessed Light of Genesis, a Radiance so powerful as to lift the heavy weight of darkness and bring about the Process which has led us to this Precious time in history. It is a time when the Full Value of Eternal Radiance may Emerge first, sending Brilliant Streaks onto the surface of Existence. These streaks appear in locations where the clouds have fully separated.

Cindy:

Then he paused quite a long time, and then, eventually, he continued and said:

Lantos:

You, Dear Ones, are responsible for separating the clouds. The cloud cover is dispelled by your practices. As the Light increases gradually one will not notice great change. Slowly and gradually the level of Light increases in the environment and the surroundings become more and more visible. One can begin to see farther. One can see across increased distance to make better decisions on the path to choose. Yes, this is the progression of the Light, the Emergence of the Blessed Light of Genesis in Creation. It spreads.

In certain areas this process is accelerated. You, Dear Ones, are the Great Accelerators, the Great Cosmic Generators. Through your Mighty Presence and your actions the Light increases by a highly accelerated rate.

Cindy:

And then he paused again for a long time, then he continued:

Lantos:

Now, let us consider an important point. As the Light, the Full Value of Light, begins to streak down in Brilliant Beams, all attention is drawn to those areas of Full Illumination. This means, Dear Ones, you will find much attention being directed toward your actions, your words, your life.

Light is a Mighty Magnet, a Mighty Magnet attracting the attention of all—just as all stop to look at the area which is engulfed in Brilliance when the other areas are still only partially lit.

The soft light has already been generated for all Creation. Now we will see the Mighty Streaks of Brilliance beginning to Emerge.

Many Blessings.

Love is the Mightiest Power

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We will be receiving soon our Blessed Seals of Genesis. Soon we will begin our training to enliven the Relationships of Eternal Light. When we speak of Relationships of Eternal Light, we are speaking of the Relationships of the Beams of Eternal Light. These Radiant Beams of Eternal Light are not new, they have always existed. These Beams of Eternal Light have existed since the Inception of Creation. But, just as the Mighty Light from the Sun has been obscured by the layers of clouds, these Blessed Radiant Beams of Eternal Light have remained hidden and beyond experience in day-to-day life.

As the clouds break, the Streaking Rays of Light will fall upon the surface, Illuminating with a Blinding Brilliance. That which has remained unseen for aeons will be seen.

We are to gain Mastery of the Beams of Eternal Light, Mastery of the Relationships of Eternal Light. And, the Blessed fruit of this ability? Love. Love Emerges as the Sublime Fruit of the Enlivenment of the Relationship of the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light. Love is the mightiest power. Where there is Love all doors are open. Where there is Love, the impossible becomes possible.

This, Dear Ones, is the year for the Great Transformation, Great Change. Great change comes on the basis of direct experience.

As we continue our daily practices with the Art of Creating, our Blessed BioGenesis sessions, our practices with all of the Tools and Techniques of Eternal Light, we are rapidly dispelling the remaining clouds. That which was difficult becomes easy, just as any new skill is acquired. Today we can do that which yesterday we could not.

Today we will begin an exercise in Creating. This exercise may be performed by our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating with the Techniques of Creating. It may also be performed by any individual with the BioTranslator and BioAmplifier. We each will select eight different desires. Write these desires on paper. Now, for all, we will place these desires under our Translator with the Amplifier positioned in the direction of either a Pyramid of Genesis or the Capitol of the Nation.

The Capitol of the Nation is the Seat of the Head of the Nation. Even if the Leader of the Nation departs, the Seat remains. It is the Seat of Power. The Throne remains even if the King departs to the next village. Yes, in this way, the Seat remains.

You may also position the Amplifier in the direction of our Beloved Seat of Eternal Light. Yes, this is the Seat of Eternal Light, the home of the Blessed Great Central Translator—the location of Blessings from the Great Hosts of Light, the Great Beings of Light. Good.

We will discuss these desires more next week. For now, place the paper under the Translator and make the call for the Fulfillment of these desires. Good.

For our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating, you may use these eight desires appropriately in your Blessed practices—the Techniques of the Art of Creating. Yes.

Now, we will practice together our Technique of the Personal Pathway.

Many Blessings.

This is Our Period of Training

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

It is the flash of Light which catches the attention. Yes, we are speaking of the Beams of Eternal Light, those Radiant Initial streaks of Light which carry the Full Value of the Sun's Radiance. In these initial flashes we find the entirety of Knowledge contained. The full Knowledge of the sun is contained in these initial Beams of Eternal Light. And in these Beams, we find the direction, the course which is established, for the coming era of full sun—the Era of Eternal Light. We find the total package of Knowledge contained in the initial brilliance of the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light.

In times past, it has been said that the Almighty God is Light. What is meant by this is that the experience of that Sublime Source of All Creation is the experience of that Level of Existence of Eternal Light in which the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light are initialized? Yes, you see? We see the term initialized coming at the very beginning. This is the correct meaning of the word Initialized. It means, “out of this comes the beginning”. It is the suitable description for the Beginning of Creation. Through the steps of Initial rotations, the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light are initialized. Yes. And this entire process originates in Light. It is Beautiful. And for our practice now with our eight desires—there is a significance to our selection of the number eight, for it is out of the Eight Rotations of Light that Creation Emerges—we are now placing our eight desires under our Translator and our Amplifier and each day we make a call for the Fulfillment of these Eight Principal Desires.

Have we all begun this practice?

Cindy:

And I said to him that probably everybody who heard the last week's message had written down eight and is probably doing it right now. Then he continued:

Lantos:

And, for our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating, we will take these desires as our Tools for Creating. It is through the Process of Relationship that the gap becomes filled with Light—that space which separates—that which was before dark and the vision could not penetrate. The experience was blind to the Value of Relationship. Now we will bring in the Light. We will fill the space which separates with Light. This is the Blessed experience of Love. We will Enliven the Sublime Value of Love in our Course of Love.

Very Good.

As you make your calls, sit quietly, sit quietly. Then, you may speak out or you may silently place the request for the fulfillment of these desires. As the Light increases there comes a point when this Blessed Process of Creating becomes visible. In broad daylight, that which was obscured becomes visible. Until then, the vision may come in momentary glimpses, but in the Full Radiance of Light, the Process of Creating is seen clearly. It is the Process of Initialization. We are so very fortunate to live at this Precious time. It is the moment of transition. It is referred to as the Great Transformation. What a Blessed Transformation for all. And your work and service is for this Blessed Transformation for all.

It is very good, very good.

We will sit now and today we will make our calls for the fulfillment of the eight desires. This is our period of training. In the training period we practice our techniques, we refine our skills. We will do this now together.

Many Blessings. Let us begin.

We are Enlivening the Level of Celestial Communication

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

It is such a Great Blessing, a Great Blessing, to regain memory. We are awakening the memory which was sleeping. The Sun was hidden behind the clouds for such a long period of time and now we are enjoying the Blessed experience of the parting of the clouds and the Re-Emergence of the Warmth and Brilliance of the Sun. Every day the clouds are lessening. Every day the Light increases. And you, Dear Ones, are in possession of the Blessed Tools and Techniques for this Era of Eternal Light. The most powerful solar panels can only function minimally if sufficient sunlight is not present. But in the presence of the full sun, these same massive generators of energy perform with maximum effectiveness and results.

Like this, Dear Ones, we have sent the Blessed Tools of Genesis to all parts of the world and, as the days pass and the clouds are further removed, the Blessed Sunlight shines brighter and brighter, allowing for new experiences to be generated with the same Blessed Tools. In the Presence of Eternal Light, our Beloved Tools and Techniques of Eternal Light are capable of results beyond what is imagined as possible. You are in possession of the Great Tools of the New Era—the Great Knowledge of the Era of Eternal Light. It is Beautiful.

Our Beloved Masters of the Art of Creating, our Beloved Masters of the Light of Genesis—Precious Beacons of Eternal Light. In our Practices with our eight desires, we are Enlivening the Level of Celestial Communication—it is Cosmic Communication. This is our Blessed BioTranslator. We are issuing our Calls through the loudspeaker. The loudspeaker, which delivers the intent to the appropriate Cosmic Department—this is the efficiency of Cosmic Communication. We are Enlivening Eight Values, Eight Desires.

We will continue this practice for the month leading to our Blessed Master's Conference of Eternal Light. We are clearing the Cosmic Channels of Communication. Very Good. We will clear the Channels of Cosmic Communication.

And our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating—Dear Masters of the Art of Creating, perform the Creating Techniques daily, using these eight desires—eight desires. Good.

Now, let us have this performance structuring the clear Channels of Cosmic Communication.

Many Blessings Dear Ones.

BioGenesis Has Come as a Beacon to Illumine the Path

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are Blessed with Illumined Vision. Illumined Vision is the direct experience of the great Cosmic Plane of Existence. It is the experience of Vision Illumined by the Light of Genesis, saturated with the Light of Genesis. When the experiences are absorbed in the Sublime Radiance of the Light of Genesis, this Dear Ones, is Illumined Vision.

As the doors open, as the clouds part, the Light shines with great brilliance. It is this brilliant Radiance which opens the doors for all achievements. How simple it is to follow the path in the light of day, when all landmarks are easily seen. But remove the light and even the most detailed map becomes a great challenge to follow. One will turn here and exert great amounts of energy believing this to be the way, only to learn that, in fact, this turn was not the correct path.

Once off the charted path, the maps are of little use. One must go in many directions—go here, go there—in an effort to return to the path. It requires great effort and little progress is made. There is little enjoyment in such a journey. One is always concerned that any step taken may lead one into unforeseen danger and hardship. BioGenesis has come as the Beacon to Illumine the Path. The Light of Genesis shines with Sublime Brilliance. Cells which have lost their way find great relief as the Blessed Flame of Genesis casts the Light which Illumines all. We introduce the Light of Genesis to dispel the darkness.

Modern medicine is a great tool; it is a tool to bring about a correction to the path. The correct path was lost and the medicines act to alter the state. It is a great asset to the individual who has stumbled in the darkness and met with an obstacle which offers great resistance. We offer our thanks to the existence of the technologies which strive for correction—strive for correction.

Now, Dear Ones, in these days of the Great Transformation, we have received the Sublime Blessing of BioGenesis, whose role it is to structure perfection. BioGenesis is for perfection. Illumined Vision in such a manner that all obstacles are seen in plain view and may be easily avoided. We do not even refer to these things which are present along the path as an obstacle anymore.

Let us consider this point—within a room we have simply a table with chairs. Now, even though one may have never visited this room before, it is of no concern to walk past the table effortlessly without consequence. One may even look to the walls of the room to enjoy the lovely paintings as one passes through the room. One may appreciate the large potted plant situated on the other side of the table.

However, if one removes the light from this unknown room, one may encounter all forms of obstacles and injuries. One may find oneself tangled in the mass of legs of the chairs, or one may run into the sharp corner of the table in an effort to go in a clear direction. One may find oneself falling into the plant and may think that, surely now, one has left the safety of the house and is in a jungle. All of this may cause panic and discomfort and, on top of this, one misses the lovely paintings entirely. The same environment, same path, may generate completely different results based on the Presence of Illumined Vision.

And this, Dear Ones, this is what we receive with the use of our Blessed Tools of Genesis, our Master Tools of Eternal Light. Dear Ones, we are in possession of the Treasures of Ages. It is time now for Illumined Vision. Practice well your Blessed Techniques.

Many Blessings.

There Will Be Great Shifts

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

The tide is rolling in; the Waves of Transformation are rolling in around the World. It is a Global Transformation whose effects are felt by all quarters of Creation. We are in the process of the experience of the Waves of Change. As the Wave comes in many objects will be relocated. Objects, policies, the way life is conducted—these things will be shifted: Shifted, Transformed. There will be Great Shifts.

It is through your Process of Creating, the Blessed Tools and Techniques of Eternal Light, that these Waves are received with greater ease and comfort. The Light is rapidly increasing; the preparations are critical. The actions taken before the Waves arrive in full have great significance on the resulting outcome. The preparations taken before the arrival of a storm will determine the outcome of the town to a great degree. It is for this reason that we have called for this Blessed Assembly of Light, the Masters Conference of Eternal Light.

During these days, we will make the critical preparations for the Great Transformation. It is during this time that we will issue Knowledge for the smooth process of Transformation. It is of great importance, great significance. We will complete the instruction with a Celebration of Eternal Light on the 10th of July; it is the Day of Eternal Light.

In the days leading up to our Blessed Assemblies we ask for the dedication of every Master of Creating, Master of the Light of Genesis, to use daily the Techniques which you have received—the BioGenesis Treatments and Sessions. This is very important; it is of great significance to the outcome. The Technique of the Personal Pathway, the Eight Desires with the Blessed Translator.

Dear Ones, this is all we wish to express today. Prior to the Masters Conference, it will be good to enjoy the Blessed Holy Water—Elixir of Life—the Great Master Tools of Eternal Light, the Elixir of Life and our Blessed Pendant of Eternal Light.

It is very good. Many Blessings.

Knowledge is for Effectiveness in Action

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Yes, we hold the key to the Great Treasure Chest of Knowledge. Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating, we hold the key to the Knowledge of Creating, the Knowledge of Transformation. Knowledge is not for the sake of Knowledge alone—Knowledge is for action; Knowledge is for effectiveness in action, success in action. Great Knowledge is for Great Action.

Now you, Dear Ones, have great Knowledge—you are equipped with the Knowledge to provide much assistance to all mankind, to all creation. Yes, this is the scope and the reach of the Knowledge you possess. The reach of success is limitless; the effects extend far beyond what is conceived. As we experience the changes along this Path of Transformation, it is Essential for our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating to Offer the Great Actions based upon the Great Knowledge. Much assistance may be offered to each nation, each town. The weather, the economic conditions, the events occurring throughout the world—this is your domain of responsibility, your domain of direct influence. If the fires burn, put them out; if the chaos rises, settle the air. You are in possession of the great Knowledge. You will receive unsurpassed benefits in return for your service to the Light, which Emerges with greater and greater Brilliance each day.

Yes, direct now the Blessed Masters on the technique for extinguishing the flames. Like this, Dear Ones, you are to participate with world events.

Knowledge is for action, Great Knowledge is for Great Action.

Many Blessings.

Great Knowledge is Emerging with Great Speed

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are approaching the days of the Blessed Masters Conference of Eternal Light. It is during these days that we will receive direction from the Blessed Great Beings of Light. We will receive the Blessings and the instructions from the Mighty Cosmic Beings as they determine the best course for these days of the Great Transformation.

Great Knowledge is Emerging with Great Speed during these times. It will be good to have available as many Tools of Eternal Light as possible, have ready your Tools of Genesis. During the Conference you may be called upon to participate with your Tools. It will be good to position your Circle of Wheels in the room wherein you will enjoy the participation with the Masters Conference of Eternal Light. Place your seat within the Circle of Wheels, position the Blessed Pyramid of Genesis in a prominent location. It will be good to have all Tools available in the room.

Dear Ones, we have now received our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis and Pocket Seal of Genesis; the Blessings of this Great Time. During our Masters Conference and Course of Love which follows, we will receive direction for the use of these Great Tools. The Knowledge will come in the proper time.

In preparation you may hang the Great Seal of Genesis in your Masters Conference room. Position your chair directly beneath the Great Seal. Good. These are the preparations for the Masters Conference. You will participate with the Great Beings of Light. Yes. Good.

You will receive your Elixirs in the coming days. As you prepare to drink the Holy Waters, hold or wear your Pendant of Eternal Light. Good.

Now we are ready.

Today, Dear Ones, we will continue our practice with our Blessed Techniques of Eternal Light. As we approach the Beloved Masters Conference, we will notice our thoughts becoming stronger. That which we think will have the immediate ability to come into being. The Presence of our Beloved Great Seal of Genesis greatly amplifies the power and direction of our thoughts.

Yes, practice your Techniques of Eternal Light in the Presence of the Great Seal of Genesis and the Pocket Seal. The effects will be experienced on a Cosmic Scale.

In the coming days, you may experience changes occurring. These changes may arrive in different ways. These changes pave the way for great things to come. Good.

Continue the daily practices—your treatment sessions, your Techniques of Creating. And, Dear Ones, rest is essential. Rest is a great preparation for the coming days of Eternal Light.

Enjoy. Blessings of Eternal Light, Blessings of Eternal Light, Blessings of Eternal Light.

The Express Path

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

It is a great fortune to live in this time, such a very great fortune—such beautiful knowledge, the Highest Knowledge. This Knowledge puts us on the Express Path. We are on the Express Path of development. It is the direct path.

The change experienced in these few weeks by our Precious Masters of the Light is change that would be experienced in Creation over millennia. In these past weeks, the change, the growth, is rapid and full.

When one is flying on the jet, one can get up; walk about in a normal fashion. One can eat a meal, one may take a nap. Like this, the activities one performs do not signal the fact that one is, in reality, moving at a great velocity. The distance covered in a few short hours is a distance which could not be matched by years of hard effort without the tool of the jet.

The key is the proper use of the tool. A few basic instructions, a few simple instructions and the whole thing is a success. One must step into the plane. It is no good to ride on the outside of the jet, the Value will be lost. Like this, Dear Ones, we follow a few simple instructions and, yes, we have a great success.

Along the path, it may be difficult to judge ones progress. It is, at most times, a process which occurs comfortably. Like the jet ride, one walks about in the same manner—one may sip the juice—the functions remain the same, the movements remain the same. The difference is in the progress, the rate of progress. Progress is made with such great acceleration, such speed; the miles are passed and not even detected. It is not the tiresome path that one has grown accustomed to, the path which requires great effort and much time. No, we are traveling on the express way. It is such a Great Blessing. Time, it is in the Value of Knowledge. Great Knowledge has come out of this beautiful time.

It is important that we give our appreciation to the Beloved Great Beings of Light who have offered this Precious great Knowledge. Instructions—Tools and instructions. Yes.

Now, Dear Ones, we have in our possession the Beloved Great Seal of Genesis and our Blessed Pocket Seal of Genesis. Our Great Seal of Genesis is a mighty generator, a Generator of Sublime Light, the Sublime Light of Genesis; Expressed through the Ten Radiant Beams of Creation. Upon Inception, Creation was Illumined by these Blessed Beams of Light, Beams of Knowledge, Streams of Eternal Light.

As we move through the changing phase of time, these Blessed Beams Emerge on the Surface Level of Life. We are Gaining Mastery day by day, Mastery of the Art of Creating. And through this Process, we are Enlivening all Aspects of Life—Relationship, Wealth—All Aspects. The Presence of the Mighty Generator Opens all doors. In these Beams, these Initial Streams of Creation, we locate the Entirety of Creation. Each Stream is the Expression of a Personal Pathway, a Channel through which Creation has Emerged.

We are Enlivening the Totality. The Beloved Great Seal of Genesis Enlivens the Totality. It is the Value of Relationship on the Scale of Creation, the Great Beings of Creation, the Modes of Expression of the Source of Creation. Yes.

Dear Ones, to Enliven our Blessed Wheels of Genesis in the Presence of this Mighty Generator Offers a Brilliant Acceleration. We are taking the jet ride. It is the same Steps of Enlivenment but we are sitting comfortably on the jet ride.

Today, we will proceed now with our Blessed Acceleration of the Wheels of Genesis. For this we will use our Blessed Pocket Seal of Genesis. We will discuss further next week the many uses for our Blessed Pocket Seal. Now, we will proceed step by step with the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres.

Very good. Many Blessings.

The Pocket Seal is the Tool of Relationship

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

And you are enjoying the experience of the Phrases of Affluence? Each week we enjoy the Enlivenment of the beautiful Phrases of Affluence. These phrases enliven the Precious experience of the Value of Abundance, born of the relationship of fullness, with diversity. One with all—the relationship of one with the Infinite Value of All. Out of this rises Affluence. It happens Automatically. We offer a small amount of time each week. This will be very good. The results will be very good.

Our Blessed Pocket Seal is the Tool of Relationship. In this Tool, we find the ability for the development of the highest level of relationship on the localized level. What do we mean by this? Relationship is a mighty force which ties together all existence, all Creation. It flows through all, Blessing all. Out of this universal Value of Relationship we find the Dynamics of the localized Value of Relationship Emerging on the individual level of daily life. This is the domain of the Blessed Pocket Seal of Genesis. The effect is not localized. The effect generated spreads across far distances. What is localized is the direct organization of all objects in the surroundings for the maximum support of the individual. It is for the maximum support of the individual and may be realized in the coming together of certain specific forces, certain individuals, as the influence of the relationship brings great Value to the lives of each individual.

Holding the Pocket Seal of Genesis in the left hand, one may pick up the Blessed BioTranslator in the right. Now, generate a specific desire—the desire for a specific relationship. It may be the relationship of Love, a desire for good relationships within the workplace. A student may desire that he be delivered to the best teacher, the one who will bring the greatest influence and impart the highest knowledge of life. Yes.

Desires may be placed in many ways. The complete Cosmic Value of Relationship gets Enlivened through the practice of the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres, the Wheels of Genesis. This practice will enliven the full range of the Great Spheres of Existence.

Let us experience this Blessed process again, now.

Very good, Dear Ones, very good.

Many Blessings.

We Stir the Waters

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are Blessed with Knowledge. We are Blessed with the Tools and Techniques of the Highest Order. Every day, life is lived. Each day, we are Blessed with the opportunity for great advancement—great advancement.

In this process, we stir up the waters—we stir the waters, which causes the impurities to surface. In a stale pond, some impurities float along the surface; others sink to the bottom of the pond. These impurities may reside in the pond, affecting the balance of the entire system, while remaining hidden. By introducing fresh waters, this stirs up the system. When new waters are added—fresh waters, clear waters—at first the pond appears more murky. How is this, we say? We are supplying clear water, and the result appears to be an increase in murkiness, an increase in cloudiness.

At this point, the reaction may be to stop adding the fresh water. It is at this stage that the Guide is needed. This is the great Value of the Guide, the Teacher, the Master: One who has traveled this path before. The Master comes along, just at the proper instances, to say, “Just a moment, that which is occurring is progress; it is the natural path of progress. Only, at certain stages the progress may be concealed, the progress may be clouded.” The one experienced with the path comes along to say, “Don’t be concerned; continue. Even in this moment, when things appear clouded, the great progress is being accomplished.” The Master may add a few simple things: some tablets here and there to help dissolve the murky substance.

Like this, Dear Ones, on this Beloved Path of Progress there will be alternating moments of clarity—moments of brilliance—along with what we know to be the process of the removal of the unwanted substances. The Blessed Master, or Guide, may come along to offer some valuable techniques: some simple things which can be done here and there, to assist one along the rapid path of progress.

Dear Ones, as the Light shines with the streaks of Brilliant Illumination, the Teacher is also required. Even these blinding streaks of Full Radiance may be received as a great shock. The whole of the society has been immersed in the swampy darkness for ages, functioning in the dimmest of light. And, to receive the blinding, opening streaks may be received with dismay and concern. Until one has traveled the path, one is new to the experiences which come along.

Dear Ones, as Masters of the Blessed Light of Genesis, many experiences have been opened to you. We have been Blessed with the Emergence of Great Knowledge, Great Techniques, and Great Tools of the Blessed Light of Genesis. With these Tools and Techniques, we Accelerate the pace by great leaps. As Masters, you may assist many others with the process, and offer your assistance on the level of the Tools of Genesis, as well as on the level of understanding. Your work generates great effects for all. Continue your daily work with the Blessed Tools of Genesis.

Dear Ones, the Blessed Wheels of Genesis carry the energy of our Blessed Celestial Sphere; the Great Sphere of our Existence is reflected in the Precious collection of these 27 Values. Each Value contains Fullness; each Value is required for the Emergence of Fullness in Life. That is the reason we will devote some time each week to the Process of the Enlivenment of each Value. It is at this stage in the Path that these Values of Enlivenment are required. Each Precious Technique with the Wheels of Genesis is like a tablet to dissolve the unwanted substance, to Influence not only our personal system, but also the Great Cosmic System—to Influence, to Uplift, to Enliven.

Very good. Many Blessings.

Vision

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Vision—this is the direction which was offered by our Beloved Great Cosmic Architect, the one with Universal Vision. Vision for All—Vision for all things, all happenings, all action at once. We are developing the beautiful finer levels of Vision. Yes.

Dear Ones, Vision is a Reflection of that which sees. The seer gets expressed in the vision and that which is seen influences the seer—it goes both ways. The seer generates the vision and the vision, in turn, influences the seer. The artist paints, the painting is the expression of the viewpoint of the artist. The vision of the artist is expressed in the painted works. As the vision changes, the paintings change. We can see the vast differences expressed by each painter, even; we may find the differences in our own experiences.

How clear, how bright, how inspiring everything appears on some days when we are feeling awake and full of energy. On some other days, the clouds seem to dominate and our vision is uninspiring and even, we may not notice our friend as we pass on the street. The range of our perception decreases and correspondingly our experience of living, our personal condition, becomes limited. To expand our vision is to expand our experience of life on a Fundamental Level.

And what of the vast cosmic regions, the infinite display of objects in Creation? These objects—the galaxies, the stars, the planets, the creatures—these objects are Reflections of the Totality, Reflections of the Source of Creation. Just as the painting is the Reflection of the artist, the entire array of Creation is a Reflection of the Sublime Brilliance of the Beloved Source of Creation.

Our Precious Techniques of the Personal Pathway is a personal link to this process of the expression of Creation. The Blessed Techniques of the Art of Creating develop within us that very process through which all of Creation Emerges. It is beautiful Knowledge, a beautiful process.

Dearest Masters of the Blessed Art of Creating, we practice the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres for the reason of Enlivening each aspect of Creation within our own personal experience, on the level of our perception. The process is for ourselves as well as for Creation. The process expands our ability for experience, our ability for perception, as well as, enlivens those aspects in Creation—the Blessed 27 Cosmic Spheres.

Now, as we enliven these Spheres, it is of great significance to have present our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis. This Great Seal is the expression of all Personal Pathways, all of the initial Radiant Beams of Light. Yes, Yes.

We perform our BioGenesis Treatment Sessions as well as our Blessed Practices with the Techniques of Eternal Light in the presence of our Blessed Great Seal of Genesis.

Very good.

Now, let us awaken these Precious 27 Spheres within our awareness.

Very good. Let us begin.

Most Cherished Time in History

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Today we will describe the Blessed Process of the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres. As we enliven the Value of Relationship for each Sphere, we are Enlivening that specific set of Creation, both within Creation and within ourselves. Yes, those Great Galaxies of Light—the collection of multitudes of stars and regions, the vast elements of Creation—have a Reflection within the structure of the individual.

There is an expression which says, “that which is present without may also be located within”. There is great wisdom in this saying. What is described by this beautiful expression is the Value of Relationship, the Value of Infinite Connectivity, Infinite Relationship. Everything in Creation—all Diversity, all Existence—all may be located within the individual. As the Individual Awareness Expands, the Blessings of the Universe rise up to greet and support the individual. This, Dear Ones, this is our practice with the Blessed Wheels of Genesis. Yes.

We are Enlivening the Blessed Values of the Great Spheres of Creation, the Blessed 27 Regions of Creation. We are Enlivening these Values; both on the level of the individual, as well as on the Level of the Universe. It is a Blessing for Creation. It is a Blessing for our own individual Existence. A Great Blessing.

Each Wheel is of great Value and, together, they form a complete expression of Creation; a beautiful expression of Creation.

Dear Ones, this is the Sublime Value of the Blessed Tools of Genesis. Today, the great dynamics of the cosmic regions are reflected in the Precious technology of the Tools of the Light of Genesis. The Blessings of these Great Tools of Light have Emerged at this time of Creation. It is the Blessed Value of Time and its relationship with Knowledge. Knowledge comes in the proper time.

As we experience today each Blessed Value of the cosmic regions, consider for a moment the great fortune we have to be living in this most cherished time in history. This, Dear Ones, is the Blessed Great Transformation, and your activities and service to the Light of Genesis is structuring the coming Era of Eternal Light.

Yes. Many Blessings.

The Cosmic Beings of Force

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are today enjoying the Presence of the Cosmic Beings of Force. We will describe them as the Blessed Beings of Transformation. During the continuing process of change, Earth is Blessed to receive the attention and assistance of multitudes of the Great Beings of Light. We enjoy the Presence today in Earth's atmosphere of a collection of the Mighty Beings of Force.

Now Dear Ones, when we use the term "Force" we refer to that level of Creation whose range of influence penetrates every substance, every object, in Creation. Force is that superior power which guides. The Presence of the Cosmic Beings of Force assists Earth with the process of change. Force is Life. Force generates the ability to accomplish the mission of life, the direction of life. Force gathers together, brings together, the necessary parts required for progress. Force unifies the various and diverse aspects of life and channels them into the most useful direction. Yes, Force unifies.

It is said strength is in unity, unification of the parts. Yes, each part must work to become individually strong, but the greatest strength Emerges only under the banner of unification. The weaknesses dissolve; the individual weaknesses are uplifted by the greater Presence of the Force of Totality.

Change: Changes Dear Ones, which would not be possible on one's own, may be accomplished as the great tide rises and uplifts all. It is the tide and force of unity. We may refer to this process of upliftment as the Receiving of Blessings. Blessings: Blessings shower upon the State of Unity. The State of Unity attracts Blessings. Unity: Unity of the Values of Life—the Mental, the Physical, the Spiritual.

For this reason, Dear Ones, we have received the Techniques to establish the relationship between these various Levels of Life. It is out of relationship that Unity Emerges, Unity Blossoms.

Relationship with the 27 Cosmic Spheres develops a Cosmic State of Unity. For our day to day existence, development of this Cosmic State of Unity offers direct results; direct Blessings, we shall say, onto the plane of daily existence. In this manner a Cosmic Level of Change, a Great Transformation, will bring great changes to all levels of life; life, daily life.

As we practice the Techniques of Relationship with the 27 Great Cosmic Spheres, we are simultaneously bringing about the greatest levels of change to our individual level of living.

We offer our deep appreciation to the Cosmic Beings of Force. And now, at this time, we will engage in our practice of the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres.

Beautiful. Beautiful.

Many Blessings, Dear Ones.

The Changing Dynamics

Lantos:

Dear Masters of the Light of Genesis, Masters of the Art of Creating; Greetings,

The Vision is beautiful, it is a beautiful Vision.

The Changing Dynamics, the restructuring of the Dynamics of Creation—restructuring and resurfacing. Resurfacing means uncovering that which has been hidden, obscured, for many millennia.

Through the practices of the Precious Techniques of Creating, the Techniques of Eternal Light, we are restructuring the Dynamics of Creation. During this period of Great Change, Complete Change—it is change born of the very nature of Creation. Such great change can only be possible through the design and support of the great quality of Time. It is the Time.

Our Precious Tools Emerge Out of the Sublime State of Eternal Light through the support of the mechanics of Time. Our Beloved Tools of Genesis, our Beloved 27 Great Cosmic Spheres, our Precious Master Tools of the Light of Genesis Emerge to Fulfill the Role of Time and the Design of Creation. Our Beloved Great Seal and Pocket Seal come to us in this Blessed Year of Transformation. In these Precious Tools we find the Mechanics of Eternal Light, supportive, to bring about change.

Cindy:

And Lantos paused for a very long time, right then, for at least a minute, and he was just standing and then he continued.

Lantos:

Our Beloved Great Seal is a Master Tool of Change. The dynamics of the Process of Initial Rotations are found Awakened in such a clear and beautiful manner. It is the Enlivenment of Fullness, the Awakening of the finest aspects of Creation, the Enlivenment of the Precious level of the Source of Creation. Out of this beautiful collection comes the Radiant Light of Initial Rotations. It is the collection of the Beams of Eternal Light radiating outward, into Creation. Do you see?

Emanating out of each point of the tips of the BioTrinities, we find the Radiant Beams of Eternal Light. The Beams of Eternal Light are the superhighway along which travel the assemblies of Initial Rotation—Packets of Initial Rotations. Yes, it is beautiful.

The Light generated, the Knowledge generated and expressed by our Precious Tools—the Knowledge of the Aeons, the ability for the greatest of deeds—is available to All today. We are the fortunate ones, Blessed with the Knowledge of Fullness, the Supreme Knowledge of Fullness and the Sublime Experience of the Source of Creation.

Dear Ones, for this we always offer our deepest thanks.

Many Blessings.

Let us continue today with our Enlivenment of the Blessed Collection of the Great Cosmic Spheres.

Blessings.

Blessed Vision Technique

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

A thunderbolt blasts with mighty force, dazzling force. The rays emitted by such a force may be painful even, to the weak eyes, the untrained eyes. This is the role of Vision. In preparation for the Brilliant Illumination, we are opening our experience to this mighty light. This, Dear Ones, is our practice. This is our practice with our Precious Tools of Genesis. This is our practice with our Techniques of Creating and; specifically, this is our practice with the Blessed Vision Technique, offered to us during the Blessed Masters Conference of Eternal Light.

Even if we do not see the Light itself, it is that Sublime Radiance of Eternal Light which Transforms. We may not see the Light itself; however, by Virtue of the Presence of the Radiance, all Objects are made Visible. We may not always Locate the Source of Light in the room, but by Virtue of the Presence of Light, all Objects may be Seen. Yes.

With our daily Techniques and Practices with the Precious Tools of Genesis, we are strengthening our ability to perform action in the brightness of Light. Yes, Dear Masters of the Light of Genesis, this is the role of Masters of the Light of Genesis, ones skilled in action in the brilliance of the Light of Genesis. We have the Precious Tools; these are the Tools to direct the Light of Genesis; directing the flow of energy in specific ways.

The Technique of Vision is to strengthen overall functioning in the Light of Genesis, one's overall ability to perform action. Yes. In our Blessed practices with the 27 Wheels of Genesis, we direct the Precious Genesis Energy into the 27 Great Spheres of Creation. Yes.

Does everyone have this Blessed Knowledge of the Technique of Vision and the Knowledge of the Enlivenment of the 27 Cosmic Spheres?

Cindy:

And at that point Lantos paused and I believed that that was a question he was asking, so I answered, and I said that I knew that everybody who had been on the Course, taking the Course, would have that Technique and would also have the Techniques of the Wheels. But then he said,

Lantos:

Good. If some do not have this Knowledge, let us offer it again. Yes, the Technique of Vision is very simple, very simple. We do this practice before bed. Yes. Good. Let us fix a time to offer this Knowledge again. Let us now enjoy the 27 Great Cosmic Spheres.

Many Blessings.

Sound is a Most Basic Element

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

In the structuring of the sound is the formulation of the words of a phrase; in the structuring of the sound is the complete recipe for the creation of that intent. This is the great truth of Creation. Words, sound—structuring the words—hold the power to create. Yes, we know this to be true from our practice with the mighty techniques of the Art of Creating. Yes. In our practice we take a sound, a word, a phrase; out of this sound—when introduced during the process of Creating—out of this sound Emerges the structure contained in those expressions. This is a great miracle of Creation. Yes. It is the structuring of Creation out of the most basic elements of Creation.

Sound is emerging; it is a most basic element. On the level of Creation, the impulse of sound Emerges. On this most basic Level of Existence our Beloved Tools of Genesis direct the flow of energy, the flow of the expression of the Light of Genesis—sound Emerges. Our Precious Tools direct the flow. These two aspects work together to form Creation. It is the sound, it is the element, it is the direction of the element—direction.

Our Precious Tools of Genesis are the Blessed directors. We are Blessed with these Precious Tools, which direct the flow of Creation. It takes some time; some time and some experience. Yes. That is why we are offering our daily practice to this process, the process of Creating. It is a beautiful process.

This, Dear Ones, is the process of that Era which is now emerging. This is the level of functioning in this new time. Life is rising to its full status. Before, life was conducted on a very limited level, on a surface level of action. Much effort was needed and only minor results were accomplished.

Now, life is rising to the highest status. This is the status which is meant to be lived. This status does credit to life. This status offers credit to the Great Almighty Source of Creation.

Yes, this Dear Ones, is the reason we practice daily our techniques of the Art of Creating. We are gaining proficiency in living life in the mode which is now emerging.

As one grows higher and higher, activity—waste of energy—becomes less and less, and the results become greater and greater. The Fulfillment becomes more and more. The individual receives the Blessings—Creation receives the Blessings.

It is a Great Blessing.

Let us enjoy our practice with our Blessed Wheels.

Many Blessings.

Great Cosmic Designers

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We plant the seeds. Yes, this is our task; this is our role as Masters of the Art of Creating. We place our desires properly. This is the Great Skill which is unique to our dear Masters of the brilliant Light of Genesis, who are trained in the Art of Creating. This knowledge is Precious. This knowledge allows our dear Masters to accomplish their role; to fulfill their role as Great Cosmic Designers—Great Cosmic Designers.

With this great knowledge you are asked to fulfill the role of setting the course for humanity; charting the course and design on a cosmic scale. The design of the Cosmos is great. The design of Creation is of unfathomable magnitude and grandeur.

The Knowledge of the Art of Creation places you in a role of Great Cosmic Designer. Your status is elevated from the level of concern over the mundane matters of daily existence to the role of Designer of the structure and direction of existence. Truly the elements of Creation will rise up to serve your commands—fulfill your desires. This is the result of Knowledge. This is the result of desire properly placed. Yes, Dear Ones, we are training in the steps of placing our desires—this is the Knowledge of Creation. This is the Knowledge of Creating.

Today we will begin a new practice. For some time we have Enlivened each of the Spheres of Cosmic Existence. In this manner each of you has risen to the status of Great Cosmic Designer. To achieve this status you have fulfilled both the requirement of knowledge and experience of the Dynamics of Creation—the workings of the process of Initial Rotations—as well as the skill and practice of the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres.

Today, we will begin our process of Preparation for Transformation. Each of you has the Beloved Pocket Seal of Genesis? For this practice we will ask each of you to use your Blessed Pocket Seal, your Pendant of Eternal Light and your Tool of the Personal Pathway—your individually selected BioTrinity. Are these Tools available to each?

Cindy:

And then he paused for some time so I answered that question, saying that I am not sure if everyone listening today has each of those Tools available right now. And he said,

Lantos:

We will allow some time for you to assemble these Tools of Eternal Light. It will be good for all to participate in these important steps of the Blessed Process of Enlivenment of the Brilliance of Eternal Light. Yes, we will begin this practice next week in order to allow time for each of our Blessed Masters to locate the Precious Tools.

Many Blessings.

A Transformation out of the Boundaries

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Greetings Dear Masters of the Light of Genesis, Masters of the Art of Creating,

We are gaining the skill and mastery over that beautiful Process of Creating. In this beautiful process, we see the enlivenment of the finest aspect of the Light of Creation—the most Brilliant Radiance of the level from which all of Creation Emerges. Yes, it is the Sublime Level of Existence which is governed by the Beloved Source of All Creation.

It is on this Highest Level of Existence, this most Sublime Level of Universal Light that we are developing proficiency; we are developing skill in the Art of Creating, the Art of Creation. This is the lofty role of our Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating—Great Cosmic Designers, designing the expressions of Creation. This is your role—your status for humanity is on a cosmic scale.

In this process we are receiving the proper steps of training. This is Great Knowledge, the Precious Value of Great Knowledge, to bring about mastery on this great Universal Scale.

We have experienced, for many weeks, the Enlivenment of the Great Cosmic Spheres, the 27 Cosmic Spheres. Now, today, Dear Ones, we will take another step in the Process of Transformation. It is a Great Transformation, a Transformation out of the boundaries and limitations of the experiences of the past, into the limitless expanse of possibilities; which are open to all on this Sublime Level of Life—the Level of Eternal Light.

We are each prepared today with a Blessed Pocket Seal of Genesis, a Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light, as well as the Individual BioTrinity—Signifying the Personal Pathway, Yes?

Cindy:

And, that was a question, so I answered Lantos, yes, I believe everybody has assembled those tools, and he continued:

Lantos:

Very good, very good. We begin by sitting comfortably. We pick up the Beloved Pendant of Light. With both hands we hold the Pendant of Eternal Light. We will allow two minutes experience with our Precious Master Tool. In this time, we will experience the Radiance of the Process of Initial Rotations—this happens automatically. We will enjoy the Blessed Radiance of the Beloved Supreme Source of Creation.

After two minutes, we will position the Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light centered in front of us. You may place it on a table, or you may place it centered on your lap.

Now, we will hold in our right hand the Beloved Tool of the Personal Pathway, the BioTrinity. In the left hand, we will place the Precious Pocket Seal of Genesis. Immediately you may feel the cascading rush of the flow of the Great Cosmic Current generated by the formation of the three, flowing within the three. This is the cascading current or rainbow of the Precious Light of Genesis. It is the Light of Transformation; linking the Source of Creation with the individual and the Process of Transformation. Very good.

We will enjoy this process now. We begin with the two minutes and we continue with three or four minutes of experience of the three. Beautiful.

We will discuss more after you have had some days to practice this beautiful process. Let us enjoy the first practice now.

Many Blessings.

Technique of Refinement

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Gaining mastery of the Art of Creating is gaining mastery of the Domain of Miracles. The miracle comes with ease and spontaneity; it comes with great precision and timing. This is the Domain of Miracles, that beautiful process governed by the source of Creation; that Sublime Process of Emergence onto the Surface Levels of Expression—the Visible, Tangible Layers of Creation.

And this, Dear Ones, is the very Process of the Precious Techniques of Eternal Light—the Techniques of the Art of Creating. Yes. This is the lofty status we are achieving as Masters of the Art of Creating, Masters of the Light of Genesis. Great Cosmic Designers, Great Cosmic Designers.

Yes, Blessed Ones, we are now preparing ourselves for the Beloved Technique of Transformation through the process of the refinement brought about by our Beloved Technique of Vision and our Technique which we received one week ago. This Blessed Technique is for Refinement, refinement on all levels. Our Beloved Master Tools offer to us great benefit in this process of refinement—the Beloved Holy Waters, the Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light. Beautiful.

Today, we will continue our practice with our Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light and Pocket Seal and Blessed Tool of the Personal Pathway. We will refresh the steps of this Precious Technique of Refinement.

We begin with silence. Sitting comfortably with both hands we pick up the Pendant of Eternal Light; we Enjoy the Dynamics of the Sublime Process of Initial Rotations. The Radiance which Forms is the Domain of the Source of Creation, the Domain out of which Miracles Emerge.

After two minutes, release the Pendant of Eternal Light and place it centered between left and right sides of your body. Now place, in the right hand, the Precious Tool of the Personal Pathway; in the left, place the Precious Pocket Seal. Good. Now, for three to four minutes we will enjoy the Blessings. It is a showering of Blessings, a Precious showering of miracles. Beautiful. Blessings, showering Blessings.

Let us begin.

Boom! The Dam Opens and the Flood of Water Rushes Through

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

It is a beautiful process. We are in the Process of Transformation. This process, Dear Ones, is nothing less than Miraculous. The Miracle is in the Transformation. The Process of Transformation—it is a process of continuity. It is the process of Change of the Physical Structure. The physical structure changes to support the structure of Light—the full Value of Eternal Light.

This is the Process of Transformation, and for this, we have the Precious Tools of Genesis. The Tools enliven specific aspects, specific expressions of Eternal Light. One by one we are enlivening the specific areas of Light; as one by one, these Channels of Light are opened. A strong current is created.

It is like this—we take a dam which separates the space with water from the space without water. It is the desire of the water to flow, to flow out in all directions. But, owing to the presence of the dam, the water has been restricted.

Now, we start to chip away, bit by bit at this large wall; the wall, the large obstacle. Slowly the cracks begin to form. Piece by piece we open small, small cracks in this large structure. Now the water begins to flow through. At first, it may only leak through in small amounts. But, as the cracks continue to be made—one here, one there—it is not long until the water is coming through at a steady rate.

And then suddenly, Boom, the dam opens and the flood of water rushes through. It is not a matter of encouraging the water to Emerge. No, the water is so designed that, by its own nature, it wishes to flow. It is the process of establishing the cracks in the proper places along the vast wall.

The wall appears so overwhelming, so immense. For centuries it has held back the force of the water. What is needed is the Knowledge, the Knowledge and the proper Tools. What is required is Knowledge and the proper Tools. In this way, the chippings are most effective. With little effort, the obstacle is weakened.

We are, little by little, creating openings or channels for the Light. In this way the Light begins to leak through. Initially, in small streaks—one streak here, one streak there. Yes. In this way, the Light is coming, the Light is emerging. This is the process of Transformation. It is already the desire of the fullness of Eternal Light to shine with brilliance everywhere, in all expressions of Creation. This is the nature and the Value of Eternal Light. It takes just some Knowledge, some valuable Knowledge and some specialized Tools. And now, Dear Ones, you are mastering this Blessed process of the use of the Tools and Techniques of Eternal Light. Do you see?

At first, the task may appear insurmountable; but we begin, chipping here and there, over and over again. It is a beautiful process. Yes.

And now we are Blessed by the Technique of Refinement. Refinement, it is a Showering of Blessings.

Let us practice now this Blessed Technique of Refinement.

Many Blessings.

Refine the Vision

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

There is activity on the surface Level of Existence and there is activity on the Inner Levels of Life. Transformation, the process of Transformation is an ongoing process, a continual Dynamic occurring in the very depths of all matter. It is out of these Dynamics that all things come about. It is out of these Inner Dynamics that all Existence Emerges and proceeds to develop in the direction of Fullness, the Fullness of Eternal Light.

Along this path, through the process of the development of fullness, you, Dear Ones, are gaining great skills. We are using the title, Great Cosmic Designers—Great Cosmic Designers. This is of great significance. In order to design, one must possess Vision—Vision, Insight. For this one must be functioning in a well-lit environment.

When laying out the plans for the new building, one must take all factors into account; all factors of the building, the structure, as well as all factors of the surroundings. Yes, one must possess clear and Illumined Vision. Development of the Vision comes about through Refinement.

Now, we will add our Blessed Technique for Refinement to our Vision Technique offered to us by the one with Cosmic Vision, our Beloved Great Cosmic Architect. First, we will practice the Technique for Refinement, and following this Technique, we will practice the Technique for Vision. This combination will produce great results.

Now, many of our Blessed Great Cosmic Designers have a Great Seal. We will perform these Techniques of Refinement and Vision in the Presence of the Great Seal.

As we have expressed, for clarity of Vision, we must be in the Presence of Light. The brighter the Light, the more details may be perceived. The Beloved Great Seal offers the Brilliance of the Radiant Beams of Creation. In this Presence, the quality of Vision is maximized.

What is the role of Vision? Vision is the ability to perceive, the ability to know. Knowledge must be known for the benefit to be gained. Vision enables Knowledge to be gained and Knowledge possesses the great power of Transformation. Contained within Knowledge is the key to all forms of Transformation—Transformation on every level of Creation and on every scale of Creation, great and small.

You are gaining the skills and status of the Great Cosmic Designers. For this, Dear Ones the instruction is to Refine the Vision. That is our instruction; that is our directive. We will now practice again our Technique of Refinement. Later you may practice your Technique of Vision. It is most effective when these Techniques are performed in the same time, one after another.

Very good, very good

Let us begin.

Technique to Dispel the Darkness

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

We are in the days of Transformation. Transformation occurs on every Level of Existence—on the level of the outer activities of Creation, on the finer planes of existence, on every level. At each level the process unfolds in phases—steps of change, steps of Transformation. During this process we are Blessed with great protection—protection from turmoil, protection from disturbance and disruption, protection from destruction. There is great protection. The Mighty Cosmic Beings of Light, the Hosts of Angelic Beings of Light—these Great Cosmic Beings bring to us great Blessings and assistance.

As these steps of change occur, there is a shifting—a shifting of energy, a shifting of occupancy. The forces which have occupied the Earth's realm for ages are, in some cases, being removed. There is the removal of certain unwanted aspects or forces of Creation. At this very Time, a great shifting is occurring, a great shifting of the balances of forces.

When the broom comes along, the dust flies. It is important not to position oneself in the path of the broom or one will be exposed to this flying dust. The dust particles may fly into the eyes causing all sorts of discomfort.

Like this, Dear Ones, these are the days of the Great Cosmic Broom. Great clouds of dust are being swept up and we will want to ensure that our path remains clear from these dust clouds.

Today we will perform the steps to keep our path clear as the clouds of darkness are disrupted and swept away from their locations in Creation. Yes. These are the Steps to Create a Shield from these clouds. Do we each have a Dark Violet Wheel of Transformation?

Cindy:

And, that was a question that he was asking to all of us, and I said that I was sure that quite a lot of us do have, but I'm not sure if everyone has. He said:

Lantos:

Place this Wheel in the left hand. Place a BioOscillator in the right hand. Now, slowly, turn in a clockwise direction bio-oscillating out in all directions. At this time we say, 'Mighty Eternal Light, Dispel the Darkness'. It is best if this activity is performed in the Presence of the Great Seal of Genesis. Standing beneath the Great Seal, bio-oscillate in all directions. We will repeat the saying three times—'Mighty Eternal Light, Dispel the Darkness, Mighty Eternal Light, Dispel the Darkness, Mighty Eternal Light, Dispel the Darkness'.

The Blessed Dark Violet Wheel of Transformation targets the dark clouds for the BioOscillator to dispel. In this way we clear the atmosphere. This is important to perform for each house. This will generate a Blessed Cosmic Wind, an influence to dispel the clouds of darkness. This is very important at this time.

Today, let us practice this Blessed Technique. Yes.

Many Blessings.

There are Many Paths but There is One Direction

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

There are many paths, but there is one direction. Choice exists: it is the choice of the path. The direction remains the same—the Beloved Supreme Source of Creation remains the Source and Goal of all. In this vast display of Creation, the choice exists in the path which one takes to reach the Goal. Dear Ones, as Masters of the Blessed Art of Creating, you are the Great Cosmic Designers charting the course, setting the proper path. The Goal for all, in all times, remains the same. The Source of All Creation, in all times, remains the same.

It is the same Source, the same Goal; only we may choose the way, the path. This selection is left to those who have mastered the great Process of Creating—those Precious ones who are familiar with the dynamics of the unfoldment of Creation in the Process of Creating, the Blessed Process of Initial Rotations. It is on this level that the Light is seen. It is from this level of experience and insight that the proper path may be selected.

Great Cosmic Designers, sometimes there will be events which arise which cannot be avoided, cannot be eliminated—events set into motion long ago. Such events, while we may not be equipped to wipe them away entirely, we may shield or protect ourselves from the full impact; we may block away the flying debris, shield our household. Together, we may shield or protect a nation, a world. This is our focus, Dear Ones; this is our role and responsibility as Masters of the Blessed Light of Genesis, Masters of the great Knowledge of the Art of Creating. Yes. This is our role.

Today, we will continue our practice with our Blessed Technique for Protection. We will add now our Technique of Refinement. Dear Ones, collectively we will practice these Techniques during our weekly sessions. Continue to perform these Techniques daily throughout the week.

Cindy:

And then he paused for quite a while, so I asked him a few questions which we were wanting to ask him. So, the first question that I asked him is: “In using the BioOscillator for this Technique of Protection, is it important to both bio-oscillate it back and forth as well as move it in a circular motion?” And his answer was:

Lantos:

The circular motion is sufficient.

Cindy:

And then the next question I asked is, “How often should this Technique be performed for a house? “And he said:

Lantos:

Daily, we perform this Technique daily for the Blessings of Protection.

Cindy:

Then I asked, “Can this be performed at a distance for somebody else’s house?” And he said:

Lantos:

Yes, this may be done.

Cindy:

Then I asked, “We have many Masters of the Light who have asked us if there is anything they should be doing to prepare for the Great Transformation, such as stockpiling food or extra water? Are there any instructions we should give at this time?”

Lantos:

Dear Ones, stockpiles of food and water will not be required for this Blessed process. We will offer to all the Blessed Technique of Transformation in the coming weeks. Yes, it is good, very good.

Now, together let us practice these Precious Techniques.

Many Blessings.

Relationships Are Set Forth in the Great Cosmic Design

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Yes, yes, good—strength for every nation, strength for the world.

It is a matter of relationship, yes, relationship. It is the relationship of the molecules which come together to structure the body. It is the relationship of the individuals who, through Cosmic Design, come together to form the body of the family. The relationships are set forth in the Great Cosmic Design. It is through the actions and impulses of the past that the future path is set. The course is set.

The tendency to associate with one another is established through design on the level of the organism to the level of the family, to the level of the community and up to the level of the nations. Nations arise out of the Principle of Relationship. To live in one nation or another is out of the direction set forth by the Great Cosmic Design. It is structured out of relationship, and relationship—that Value of Relationship—exists on every level of life, from the level of the organism up to the level of the nations and beyond to the level of the galaxies. And even beyond this, the Value of Relationship can be seen working.

When a leader is selected to rise above and govern the collection of individuals in the nation, this selection is made on the level of relationship. The relationship of the organisms within the structure gives rise to a unified form, complete with its own expression. What Emerges from the collection of cells and molecules is the Blessed structure of the individual. The individual rises out of the collection. Out of the collection of individuals Emerges the structure of the nation. This work is all conducted on the level of relationship.

This, Dear Ones, is the reason that the enlivenment of every aspect of relationship is of utmost importance. We will, today, practice again our Blessed new Techniques; our Technique for Refinement, our Technique for Dispelling the Darkness—Dispelling the Darkness. Yes, let us now enjoy the Showering Blessings.

Cindy:

And then, right then, before it seemed like he was just about to end, I asked him a question which we have had which is, “How is it that we would go about performing the Technique for Dispelling the Darkness at a distance if we’re not actually right there?”

We had asked him in the past if it's possible to do and he said, "Yes". So I asked him how is it possible this time, what do we do? And he said,

Lantos:

Yes, place a picture of the individual or location in your left hand along with the Blessed Wheel. Continue with the same practice for the Technique of Protection.

Many Blessings.

The Days of Grace Approach

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

It is the Wave, a Great Wave in Creation. This Great Wave is upon us. It is a Time of great purification; sweeping change, change on all levels. A Great Transformation, Great Transformation. Yes, Dear Ones, a Wave of Transformation.

When a Wave is created, it forms out of its base. A small ripple may draw only the waters on the surface, whereas a Great Wave will draw water from great depths and distance. It is the course of Time. It is just this thing—it is just the course of Time. It is a great fortune to be alive at this Time, to be experiencing this Great Cosmic Process. It is a great fortune, a great Blessing.

We are approaching the Blessed Holy Season. It is a time of Sublime Grace, yes beautiful; it is Sublime Grace. The cells are Blessed with great receptivity for the Knowledge of Fullness, receptivity for the experience of the Divine awakening within the individual—the dawning of fullness within the individual. We proceed with solid steps—practice of our Techniques and Treatments using the Blessed Tools of Genesis.

In these days, we exercise caution. Caution to avoid the flying debris—the forces of darkness—as they are swept away out of their placement, dislodged from their place of past existence. These dust particles hope to cling on to a Source of Light and, in this way, remain. For this reason, we Dispel the Darkness in all directions—around our homes, around our families. We are ridding our environment daily from these forces which are sticky. They wish to stick. You have heard the expression, “stick around”? This is the nature of the dust as it is swept away. It wishes to “stick around”.

But these forces will be swept away with the Great Tide. The tide clears away the debris. One cannot even stand against the complete force of the onrushing tide. In our Blessed Technique of Transformation, we will receive the Knowledge of the Tide of Transformation—the Tidal Wave of Transformation.

Cindy:

And, at that point, Lantos paused for a long time, so I just asked him the question, “When we will be receiving this Technique?” And he answered:

Lantos:

We will receive this Knowledge during the Blessed Holy Season.

Cindy:

And he paused again, a long time, and so then I was going to ask him another question about if there was anything we needed to do to prepare for it. He, instead, continued and said:

Lantos:

This is the experience of Sublime Grace.

Cindy:

And then again he paused a long time, so then I again asked that question of, “Would we be needing any specific Tools for this Technique or is there anything we should be preparing for—for the Technique of Transformation”? And he said,

Lantos:

Yes a few Tools are required. This list will be provided to you during the Time of Grace.

Cindy:

And he paused again, and then he continued:

Lantos:

We will offer the Technique to all on December 20th. It will require some preparation. We will discuss the details as we enter the Blessed time of Sublime Grace. Very good.

Now, Dear Ones, let us practice together our Precious Techniques. You are the Great Cosmic Designers and you will design the direction for all to follow in these coming weeks.

We will begin by Dispelling the Darkness. We begin with this Technique of Protection. As we complete this Technique for our house and home, we will offer protection for our nation as well. Each individual may place the left hand on a map of your nation, together with the wheel. Next we will continue with the Process of Protection. Good. After this we will go through the Steps of Refinement.

Yes, beautiful. The days of Grace approach.

Many Blessings.

---

Cindy asked Lantos, “How does one do the Dispel the Darkness Technique with the map in the left hand?” and he said,

Lantos:

If possible, it is good to hold the map in the left hand. If it is too large, you may simply place your left hand on top of the image before you begin the Process of Purification. The Technique is performed in the same manner. Very good.

The Great Cosmic Ocean

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Showering Blessings—the Blessed energies of the Great Cosmic Ocean are arriving on Earth. It is the flowing of the Great Ocean of Fullness, the Mighty Ocean of Creation, carrying the Blessings of Eternal Light.

During this time, the cells of every individual are most receptive to change, Transformation. During this time of this Blessed Holy Season, we welcome this supreme gift of Creation. The Blessings of Creation arrive on the Great Cosmic Ocean. The cells of each individual are Awakened, energized by the Presence of this great Expression of the Fullness of Eternal Light. Showering Blessings, Dear Ones, Showering Blessings.

We will offer to our cells the experience of the Blessed Holy Waters of Life, the Blessed Elixir of Life. In this we offer the specific Knowledge of the Proper Sequence Code to the cells to restore memory, memory of the fullness of Eternal Light—the perfection of Eternal Light. Beautiful.

We will offer the cells the memory, the codes, to restore the Proper Sequence of Knowledge. Knowledge is the basis of the expression of the physical—physical body, physical creation. Knowledge is the basis. It is through Knowledge that change comes about. Transformation occurs on the Waves of Knowledge, the rising Waves of Knowledge.

And now Dear Ones, the Great Forces, the Mighty Energy of the Great Cosmic Ocean, is arriving on Earth. Yes.

We will now practice our Blessed Technique to Dispel Darkness as well as our Technique of Refinement. These are the days of the great receptivity. The cells are at the heightened point of receptivity, and, for this, we offer the Proper Sequence Code delivered to each individual through the Blessed Elixir of Life, the Holy Waters of Life.

Yes. If possible, drink these Holy Waters in the Presence of the Great Seal.

Beautiful. Many Blessings.

Let us practice now our Techniques.

We are Preparing for the Technique of Transformation

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

In this year we have achieved great things. We have received many great Blessings—Blessings of great Knowledge, Blessings of the upsurge of the Mighty Tidal Wave of Creation, the Great Wave bringing forth the Blessed Transformation. This Wave impacts all. Just as the Wave spreads across the pool—all receive the effects, all receive the effects generated by this Great Cosmic Wave.

Transformation, we are speaking of Transformation. Yes, we are preparing for the Technique of Transformation.

In this Blessed Holy Season, we are experiencing the maximal period of receptivity. It is a time of maximum receptivity on all levels—on the physical level, on the mental level, on the spiritual level.

The Transformation is born of the Great Dynamics of Relationship. It is the relationship of the one to the other—all relationship. In our Blessed Masters Conference, we Enlivened the various levels of relationship—the relationship of the Great 27 Cosmic Spheres, the Blessed relationship of the planes of existence. These are critical points, critical elements in the process of the Transformation. It is the Enlivenment of the links. It is in the Enlivenment of the links that Transformation Emerges.

Dear Ones, a New Structure is Forming. Yes, the New is Emerging out of the Enlivened State of Connection. The Key is the Relationship, the Sublime Value of Relationship. The Radiance Emerges out of the Value of Relationship. Radiance is not directed in only one channel, it is not focused in a singular direction. Radiance spreads out in all directions. It is a Blessing to all.

In this Great Holy Season the Radiance will Emerge in all directions, Showering Blessings. It is the Showering of the Sublime Cosmic Blessings. Yes, it is beautiful, beautiful.

Dear Ones, today let us Enliven the Blessed 27 Great Spheres of Creation, the Blessed Wheels of Genesis.

Very good.

Many Blessings.

The Blessed Eight-Pointed Star of Eternal Light

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

It is a Time of Great Purification. During these days, it is best to adhere to a set and proven path, a set and proven schedule. In these days, it will be good to do the Shield Treatment every morning. Like this, every morning before leaving the home, we perform the Shield Treatment for our protection—this is our routine. We also perform daily our Technique of Protection with our Blessed BioOscillator.

These are the Days of Great Purification and Great Change. During great change, it is important to perform these simple Techniques to ensure the smoothest path, to ensure the safest path.

Dear Ones, in the center of any great power is the Source—Source of Energy, Source of Light. In the center of the atom is the Source which governs the dynamics of the surrounding activity. In the center of the Sun we find that Force which generates the Sun's mighty heat and Radiance—it is found in the core. The core is the location of the Seat of Light and Energy. Blessed Ones, the Great Core of Light is awakening at this Time in Creation. Beautiful. We have glimpsed this Precious energy in our Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light.

Dear Ones, this Core has a structure. It is a Great Cosmic Star. It is the Star of Eternal Light. This is the Great Radiance located within the Core. This is the Source of the Light of the Great Transformation, the Light of Change. This Beloved Great Star is comprised of the very rotations found within the Source of All—the Rotations of Creation, which are located as the Source of the Light of the Art of Creating. These are the Initial Rotations of Creation. Your Blessed Waters of Life, the Blessed Holy Waters, are charged with the Radiance of these Sublime Initial Rotations. Yes.

In these coming days we will receive the Radiance from the Blessed Eight-Pointed Star of Eternal Light, the Core of Creation and the Source of Light and Energy of Life.

Now we will practice our Blessed Technique for Protection. Yes, to all directions we issue the Command for Protection. Great Light attracts all. We wish to dispel any darkness as it is swept away in these Days of Purification and Change.

Let us perform now this Technique to Dispel the Darkness.

Many Blessings.

These are the Days of the Great Reversal of this Ultimate Mistake

Lantos:

Greetings Beloved Ones,

Life is lived on the Waves of Creation. From Wave-to-Wave Life flows. As one Wave rises, another Wave subsides. Like this, Life flows, existence unfolds. It is an Eternal Unity Formed by the Transformation of one Wave into another.

How one experiences Life, how one lives Life, is based upon perception—we will call it Vision, yes, Vision. One experiences the Flow of Life based upon one's ability to recognize the universal nature of the Waves.

When Life is shadowed by darkness one sees only the surface gray of the Wave. Ah, what a loss, what a tremendous loss to the Glory of Existence. One sees a flat, gray outline and takes this to be the nature of the Wave. How can this be, how does Life get reduced to this level of limitation, this degree of darkness, wherein the boundaries are so rigid that they completely obscure the Glory of the Infinite—what an amazing trick. It is a trick, the ultimate mistake of Life. In many great traditions one hears of a mistake leading to a time of suffering, a period of suffering. You have heard of this kind of thing?

Cindy:

And he paused, so I answered, “Yes, yes I had heard of this”. And he said:

Lantos:

It is a tragedy; it is a great loss, a loss of life. Life is lost when this ultimate mistake occurs. It is the mistake of Vision—it is non-vision. It is the mistake of Perception—it is non-perception. The lack of Vision, the lack of Perception, generates suffering.

To experience the Wave only on its gray surface level, one loses the Sublime Experience of the True Nature of the Wave. One taste, one taste, of the Inner Quality of the Fruit is enough to Wake Up an Individual—Awaken the Individual from the misconception that the fruit is only the skin. The taste of the skin is bitter, while the Inner Quality of the Fruit is sweet.

While in the Low Light, the Clouded Light, the Wave is seen as gray and solid. When Perception Awakens, when Light is present, the Wave becomes Transparent. The Brilliant Blue Hues are seen along with the Sparkling Golden Radiance. Even at first, the sunglasses are required as the experience is overwhelming. The depths of the ocean are revealed. All Life, all activity, may be seen existing within the Wave. Yes, this is Life.

As Creation Emerges, Life is fully connected to its Source, the Source of Creation, the Almighty Source of Creation. As Life proceeds, distance and time create an apparent sense of separation between the Creation and the Creator. The distance from the Source of Life gives rise to the shadows of darkness, and the shadows of darkness give rise to the mistake of perception, and this non-perception gives rise to suffering. This is the course of Creation, Creation as it flows in the outward direction.

Dearest Masters of the Art of Creation, these are the days of the Great Reversal of this ultimate mistake. These are the days of the Blessed Great Transformation.

What is this Transformation? Why has this Great Transformation been foreseen for thousands of years? The answer is set in the dynamics of Creation itself, it is set in the dynamics of the process of Creation; it is set in the design of Creation, the blueprint of Creation.

The great seers of the past foresaw the steps of the Process of Creation. Those Blessed individuals saw with their clear, illumined vision this point in Creation, which is identified as Transformation, Great Transformation—the point in which obscurity is lifted and the boundaries release their grip on the Radiance of Eternal Light. Darkness is dispelled, and, while Life continues to move in Waves of living, the nature of the Waves is revealed. Life is no longer confined to the mistake which has led to vast suffering. Life is bathed in the Grace of the Sublime Nature of Eternal Light.

Still the Waves of Life Flow, but the Waves which were once dark and gray and opaque become Waves of transparent Radiance—Blue Radiance. Dear Ones, this Precious planet is considered Blue. Blue is a color of a high order of vibration, a high order of energy. And during this Precious time, this time of the Great Transformation, this time of the Blessed Holy Season, the atmosphere is bathed in Waves of Blue Radiance. This Radiance is received from the Blessed Celestial Beings as directed by the Great Universal Architects.

We are receiving this tremendous Influence of Purity, these Waves of Blue Radiance, to assist in this time of release from the direction of bondage, the path on which Life has traversed for millennia. This is a Great Transformation. Yes, this is the Great Transformation—Eternal Light, Eternal Light, the Age of Eternal Light.

Now, Dear Masters of the Art of Creating, we will prepare for the Technique of Transformation by practicing now the Vision Technique taught to us during the Blessed Masters Conference earlier this year. It is always best to perform any Technique in the Presence of a Great Seal of Genesis. The Blessed Great Seal of Genesis opens the Channels of Light along the Ten Initial Pathways of Creation.

Very good, very good. You will receive the instructions for the Blessed Technique in the coming days.

Many Blessings.

Tools for the Technique for Transformation

Lantos:

Dear Ones, Precious Masters of the Sublime Light of Genesis,

We are entering the Time of Transformation, the Time of the Emergence of Eternal Light for all mankind. Blessed Masters of the Pure Light of Genesis, we have prepared for the Process of Transformation for millennia. The wise of every era have foreseen the coming of this great process, this great change.

Now, Dear Ones, we are prepared to awaken the dynamics of change—change, the flowing of one Wave into another. It is the continuous process of the rise of one Wave and the fall of another. It is the process of going out and returning in. It is this process which occurs everywhere in Creation.

And now, during this great process, the dynamics will occur on the Grand Cosmic Scale. For this Dear Ones, we have worked steadily, working and preparing—preparations on the Personal Level of the physical Human Structure, Preparations on the Level of the Structure of Society. These Activities, this Great Work, has Paved the Way for the Process of Great Transformation.

When Action is Supported by the Great Force of Time, the effects are greatly amplified. The effects generated are greatly magnified. It has required the dedicated efforts over Time of the Blessed Masters of the Light. Generations of preparation by those Blessed individuals dedicated to the Enlivenment of the Beloved Source of Creation and the Radiant Light at the Basis of all Existence.

And now, in this generation, we have Received the sublime Gifts from the Blessed Great Universal Beings of Light—the Blessed gifts of the Tools and Techniques of BioGenesis—opening the Greatest Light of Creation, the Greatest Treasure of Creation, the Brilliant Radiance of Eternal Light. Yes, this is our role, our Blessed Role—to Awaken the Light of Genesis on Every Level.

In this past year, Dear Ones, we have Received the Sublime Gifts of the Great Seal and the Blessed Pocket Seal; the Tools to Enliven the Dynamics of the Relationship of all Aspects of Creation. We have Enlivened the Blessed 27 Cosmic Spheres. We have Enlivened the Blessed Realms of Existence. We have received the Technique for Protection and the Technique for Purification and Vision. We have performed the Blessed Technique of the Personal Pathway, Enlivening the individual channels of expression of the Beloved Almighty Source of Creation. The pathway of the unfoldment of the Blessed Light of Genesis as it Emerges into Existence. Yes, beautiful.

Beloved Masters of the Art of Creating, yes Blessed Masters, the Art of Creating is the Knowledge of the Emergence of Form out of the Pure Value of Energy—Light. Transformation is the process of the dissolution of one Aspect and the Emergence of another.

We will receive, in one day, this Blessed Technique for Transformation.

Dear Ones, to prepare for tomorrow, we ask that you assemble these three tools:

A Beloved Multi-colored Pyramid

Our Master Tool, the Pendant of Eternal Light, and

Our Precious Pocket Seal

Also, please select any one of the following:

A Clear Pyramid

A BioTranslator, or

A Shield of Genesis

In addition, Dear Ones, please have your Blessed Tool of the Personal Pathway, the Blessed BioTrinity.

Good, very good. We are well prepared.

Tomorrow, at this time, we will receive the Knowledge; we will receive this Precious Technique.

Now, together, we will dispel the darkness.

Many Blessings.

The Blessed Technique of Transformation

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Today we welcome the arrival of the Blessed Knowledge of Transformation, the Blessed Technique of Transformation. This Technique comes as a great gift in this period of existence, designed to bring about the greatest change seen in Creation in millennia. This change is of Cosmic design and is supported by the great Force of Time.

We offer our thanks to the Almighty Source of Creation and the Beloved Universal Directors, through whom all is Formed and all is Conducted. We offer our deepest thanks in Silence. We offer this Silence out of which all Expressions Emerge.

Transformation, it is a Sequence. It is the Sequence of the Process of Creation. Transformation is that Precious sequence of annihilation of one state and Formation of the next. The connection between the previous state and the latter state is the Realm of Silence, Fullness. And that which joins the two existences is the Value of Relationship.

We have the Tools of Light which we will position properly at this time:

- The Blessed Pyramid of Genesis, the Multi-Color Pyramid of the Light of Genesis, we will position in the North of our seated position. For those Blessed individuals who have a Great Seal of Genesis position yourself beneath this Mighty Instrument of Light. Place the Blessed Pyramid of Genesis to your North
- Position the Blessed Pocket Seal to your East and,
- In the West, position our Beloved Pendant of Eternal Light. Very good.
- To the South, we will position one of the following tools:
  - A Clear Pyramid
  - A BioTranslator, or
  - A Shield of Genesis
  - These three Tools each provide the necessary function of guarding the entrance to the Chamber of Transformation

Within this structure of energy, this Chamber of Light, we will perform the Blessed Technique of Transformation, offering first our deep affection and gratitude to the Beloved Personal Pathway of our individual existence through the performance of the Technique of the Personal Pathway.

Blessed Ones, you will hold the Personal BioTrinity in both hands together.

- If your BioTrinity of the Personal Pathway is Light Violet, you will position yourself within this Beloved Chamber of Light facing the Mighty Pyramid of Genesis, the Multi-Color Pyramid of Knowledge.
- If your Personal BioTrinity is Green, you will face the Blessed Pocket Seal of Genesis.
- If you are Pink, you will face the selected Tool, either: a Clear Pyramid, a BioTranslator or a Shield.
- Now Dear Ones, if your Personal BioTrinity is either First Rays or Aqua you may face the Blessed Pendant of Eternal Light. Good.

We will begin now with only our Blessed BioTrinity in hand and perform the steps of the Technique of the Personal Pathway. This Blessed Technique came for the Blessings of all, arriving as the gift of the Holy Season one year ago. And, for one year, we have enjoyed the Enlivenment of the Connection of the Source of All Existence, the Singular, as it travels outward into the designated direction of Creation, into the realm of many.

We will sit now and enjoy this Technique for a few minutes, two-three minutes. Good. Let us begin.

Very good.

Now, we will begin the Technique of Transformation within our Beloved Chamber of Light. This process, the Beloved Process of Transformation, requires the annihilation of the existing conditions, the present state, and the Re-Emergence of a New State—the Physical Structure of Eternal Light. This is the Transformation of all pockets devoid of Light into the State Enlightened by the Brilliance of Eternal Light.

We will sit comfortably. We have Enlivened the Personal Aspect of the Beloved Source of Creation through the Technique of the Personal Pathway.

Now, Dear Masters of Creating, we place this desire properly:

- Mighty Flames of Transformation, envelop and consume all limitation, Emerge the Radiant Reflection of Eternal Light
- Mighty Flames of Transformation, envelop and consume all limitation, Emerge the Radiant Reflection of Eternal Light
- Mighty Flames of Transformation, envelop and consume all limitation, Emerge the Radiant Reflection of Eternal Light

We will create Transformation, Dear Ones, through the Beloved Process of Creating—creation, dissolution, creation. It is the same process. Having Enlivened the Personal Pathway, we apply the process of the Art of Creating within the Chamber of Light for Transformation.

If there are those listening who have not completed the Course of Creating, the instruction is to repeat the Phrase of Transformation three times, allowing one to two minutes of silence between each repetition.

For our Beloved Masters of the Art of Creating, we introduce the Phrase of Transformation as the desire. Very good.

Now we will create Transformation. Let us begin.

Very good, very good.

Dear Ones, practice this Blessed Technique of Transformation several times in the coming hours, beginning with the Blessed Technique of the Personal Pathway.

We will speak again tomorrow. Many Blessings.

The New Structure of Creation

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Very good, very good. It is good. You have experienced now this beautiful process. It is out of this process of annihilation that Fullness Emerges. Transformation is Structured in the Relationship of Negation and Formation. The Wave rises and falls and rises again. The base of the passing Wave becomes the starting point for the rise of the coming Wave. The completion of the previous gives rise to that which is to come.

The Transformation is structured in the turning point, the point containing the Knowledge, the memory of that which has come in and that which is going out. The energy which has led to the point structures that which follows. This point is the Value of the Relationship of the two events. This Value of Relationship Structures the Nature and Quality of Transformation.

The Wave on the ocean, which draws from the deepest level, rises to the greatest height.

In our Blessed Technique of Transformation, Dear Ones, we experience the process of flaming Transformation. It is a sudden burst, a flash of flames engulfing the material nature, the nature of Quality and Form. That which had been separated from its Source—Form which had been separated from the Source of Creation—that which had lost the Memory of the Source, the Memory and Reflection of the Radiance of Eternal Light—all that, which had lost the Memory, all that, receives Illumination in a Burst of Brilliant Flames. That which Emerges is the Radiant Reflection of Eternal Light. Yes Dear Ones, the Radiant Reflection of Eternal Light.

Some will see this Process as the Emergence of the Mighty Winged Being of Flaming Radiance. It is the Emergence of Eternal Light, the Brilliant Radiance of Eternal Light.

As we perform this Blessed Technique, the New Structure of Creation is Formed; the old structure no longer can support the Radiance of this New Era. This New Structure, Dear Ones, this Universal Structure, is the Beloved Star of Genesis, the Beloved Star of Genesis. Yes Blessed Masters, it is the Beloved Star of Genesis.

Very good, very good.

It is well done.

We will perform this Blessed Technique of Transformation over the next 10 days. You may perform this Technique several times daily.

Now enjoy, enjoy.

Many Blessings to all.

The Advanced Technique of Transformation

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

You have performed the Blessed Technique of Transformation. We will continue to perform this Blessed Technique for the next five days. It is of great importance to perform the Technique several times daily. It is through the repetition of this process that the results are achieved.

For those who have performed the process at least twice daily, we will continue to the next step of this Technique. For those with regular practice, you may now alter the phrase. We do not alter the process, the process remains the same. Only the words of the phrase are slightly altered. Now we will use this phrase: "Mighty Flames of Transformation, Envelop and Consume, Emerge the Radiance of Eternal Light; Mighty Flames of Transformation, Envelop and Consume, Emerge the Radiance of Eternal Light; Mighty Flames of Transformation, envelop and consume, Emerge the Radiance of Eternal Light". Beautiful.

Dear Ones, Blessed Masters of Eternal Light, this is the time to consider your path in life. Spend some time each day considering your vision of goals to achieve. Your thoughts hold great power and strength. The energy transmitted by your intentions spreads across Creation, gathering the means to achieve Fulfillment. Energy becomes Form, Intent becomes Creation.

Very good, very good.

Cindy:

And then I asked him, if people had not done the Technique twice a day, if there were any instructions for them. And he said,

Lantos:

Practice the initial Technique regularly for three days. On the fourth day you may perform the Advanced Technique. One step must be achieved before the performance of the step which follows. Yes? Beautiful.

Enjoy the Blessings of Eternal Light.

Beautiful.

Showering Blessings of Eternal Light.

Knowledge is to Be Lived

Lantos:

Greetings Dear Ones,

Beautiful, it is very beautiful. The Light of Knowledge shines with great brilliance.

Dear Masters of the Beloved Light of Genesis, it is by means of your connection with this Precious Light of Genesis that the total Value of Life gets Expressed, the Total Value of Life—Fullness of the Precious Light of Genesis on the Surface of Existence. And we have seen this Fullness Emerges out of the Beloved Value of Relationship, out of the Connection between the individual life and the Source of Creation, out of the Relationship between the Expression and the Source of All Creation Expression. It is in the Relationship.

In these past ten days we have enjoyed the Precious Technique of Transformation. This is the Technique to Bring Forth the Fullness of the Light of Creation, the Sublime Radiance of the Light of Genesis. It is very beautiful, such a beautiful thing.

The Infinite Value of Fullness—Fullness without boundaries, without limits, gets reflected on the level of individual expression. It is a great miracle. This is the Fulfillment of the path of existence through the Blessed Process of Transformation; Fulfillment of the process of Creation is achieved.

Blessed Masters of the Art of Creating, each life is Precious; each life is the Precious expression of the almighty source of Creation. But for you, for the Precious Masters of the Art of Creating, the expression of life is glorified. Glorified by Knowledge, and by Knowledge we do not mean study. The study of Knowledge is one thing and, in this, limitations will always be found. The limits will always be popping up. Knowledge is to be lived. The Sublime Value of Knowledge shines in its ability to Transform Limits into the Limitless. The study of Knowledge fine tunes the Mechanism, study fine tunes the Mechanism of Perception and, at times, one may glimpse the Reality of Fullness in these Moments of Heightened Ability, Heightened Perception.

Dear Masters of the Art of Creating, the Goal of Knowledge is a living Reality—Knowledge is to be Lived. The Blessed Techniques of the Art of Creating Enliven the Knowledge of the Process of Creation. The Blessed Techniques of the Relationship of the Spheres of Creation Enliven the Knowledge of all Aspects of Expression—All Aspects, All Levels of Existence—all this on the Level of Experience.

The highest Knowledge, universal Knowledge, offers the experience of itself. You see? This is great Knowledge. The Knowledge of Transformation, the Technique of Transformation, contains within itself the Process of Transformation—the Experience of Transformation. It is beautiful.

Our Beloved Masters of the Light of Genesis are enlivening the Knowledge of Creation, the Knowledge of the mechanics of Creation. The great purifying force of this Blessed Light is being spread to the troubled areas, the troubled spots, where darkness has gripped the land and influenced the lives of those living in the afflicted areas. This is a Blessed Transformation for the land with great populations. It is very beautiful, very beautiful. It is so beautiful, such a beautiful thing.

Now we have performed this Blessed Technique of Transformation for ten days. Rest now.

After the performance of the Technique we pause. In this pause, out of this Silence, the results Emerge. Out of Silence springs Creation. Following this Blessed Technique of Transformation we experience Silence, Rest.

Tomorrow perform the Blessed Phrases of Affluence. Listen to the beautiful music. Sound—Creation Emerges on the Waves of Sound. The beautiful Phrases of Affluence are the sounds of the expressions of fullness. Enjoy the beautiful sounds—music, phrases.

Very good, very beautiful.

These are the instructions for tomorrow.

Enjoy. Many Blessings.
